Russian Delegate Charges "Insult" At Paris Meeting

Agenda Error Is Cause of Outburst By Soviet Delegate A. Y. Vishinsky

PARIS, Aug. 12 (CP).—Touchy tempers flared once more at the peace conference today when Soviet Delegate Andrei Y. Vishinsky hurled a charge of "insult" at State Secretary Byrnes of the United States.

Mr. Vishinsky's remarks were made during debate on Italy's declaration to the conference Saturday. The Soviet deputy foreign minister charged that a ruling by Mr. Brynes—who took over the conference chairmanship today—against a general debate on the proposed treaty for Italy was "an infraction of all the rules and an insult to the Soviet Union."

The argument was resolved soon afterward when Mr. Byrnes discovered an error in the agenda. The Russians had insisted on continuation of the debate after the Yugoslav delegate, replying to Premier Alcide de Gasperi's Saturday speech for Italy, assailed Italian claims to disputed Venezia Giulia and implored the delegates to make no concessions to "the policy of Italian imperialism."

Mr. Byrnes had ruled earlier that under previously adopted procedure, general debate on the cases of former enemy countries should be deferred, but he yielded to Russian demands by assuring that a motion for general debate would be entertained. Only then, after an hour's debate, could the Yugoslav delegate take the floor.

Mr. Byrnes scheduled further debate on the Italian declaration for tomorrow.

After the clash was settled the 21-nation meeting voted unanimously to invite Albania, Cuba, Mexico and Egypt to give their views on the Italian treaty.

French Delegate Jacques DuParc was elected permanent secretary-general, a position he held in a temporary capacity, and the conference decided that the secretariat should consist of eight members, including one each from the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain and France.

Britain's slate for the other four members—Australia, Brazil, China and Yugoslavia—was adopted after an argument over Australia, characterized by Mr. Vishinsky as a "temperamental member of our meeting."

All Boxes For Fruit Is Order

Prices Board Rule Given Box Makers

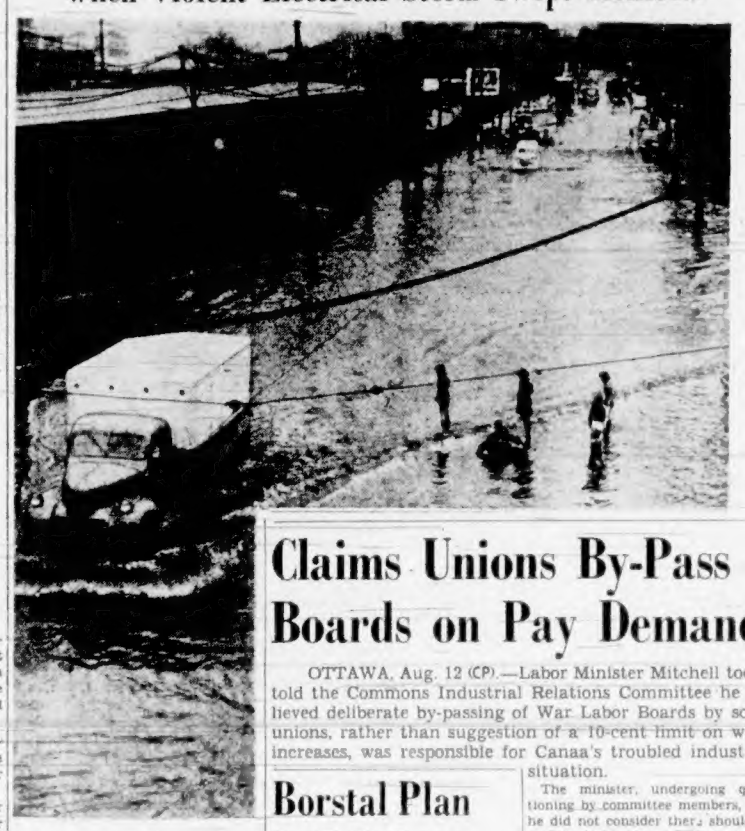
VANCOUVER, Aug. 12 (CP). — Reports were current here tonight that the Prices Board has ordered British Columbia box makers to concentrate on making containers for fruit and vegetables.

Directives from Ottawa, it was reported, prohibit the box makers from using lumber, except by permit, for any other purpose.

Gordon Bell, appointed controller of the plants during the lumber strike, said that the reported board order was apparently the "answer" to the box makers' stand that they would make no containers until prices had been adjusted. Some time ago the box makers applied for a price increase.

Hugh Dalton of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association said telegrams explaining the Prices Board order had been received but he declined to disclose details.

When Violent Electrical Storm Swept Montreal



THIS is what a Montreal street looked like a few minutes after a torrential downpour flooded out certain sections of the city. The photographer got the picture above as flood waters gushed along St. James Street between Guy and St. Martin Streets. Children take advantage of the sudden deluge, but the truck is having difficulty.

Claims Unions By-Pass Boards on Pay Demand

OTTAWA, Aug. 12 (CP).—Labor Minister Mitchell today told the Commons Industrial Relations Committee he believed deliberate by-passing of War Labor Boards by some unions, rather than suggestion of a 10-cent limit on wage increases, was responsible for Canaa's troubled industrial situation.

The minister, undergoing questioning by committee members, said he did not consider there should be a flat declaration of Government policy on how much wages could be increased. In general he reaffirmed his support of the opinion of Donald Gordon, Prices Board chairman, who told the committee increases much in excess of 10 cents would shatter price control.

"I don't think you can control the price structure even with a 10-cent increase," Mr. Mitchell said.

Earlier, the committee received and placed on its record a letter from Mr. Gordon, who said while he had put the limit at 10 cents he did not intend it to be taken as "the exact breaking point" for price control.

Mr. Mitchell also told the committee that no directions had gone out from his department to War Labors Board to limit increases to 10 cents. Union representatives, in evidence before the committee, had advanced the viewpoint that increases of 15 cents an hour could be granted without causing price increases.

Borstal Plan In B.C. Soon Says Wismer

Immediate action towards reintroduction of the Borstal system of correction of young offenders in British Columbia is to be taken by Attorney-General Gordon S. Wismer, K.C.

Back from a visit to England, Mr. Wismer said yesterday he intends within the next week to arrange meetings with Vancouver's Magistrate Herbert Wood, the John Howard Society, the Crown prosecutor in Vancouver and other interested organizations.

Main difficulty confronting re-establishment of the system is that of finding suitable quarters, and Mr. Wismer said the problem is one that must be tackled at once. With the proposed boys' industrial school near Nanaimo now shelved because of prohibitive cost of construction, the Province cannot hope to build and must find suitable existing quarters to house Borstal inmates.

Quarters must be within easy enough reach of the city to enable businessmen's organizations to make frequent visits and maintain close contact with the boys, following out the "big brother" idea, the Attorney-General said.

While in England, Mr. Wismer made a thorough study of the situation there, which operates on national lines.

Treatment of Hindu Here May Decide Homeland

MONTREAL, Aug. 12 (CP).—Canada's treatment of one of its smallest minorities, the approximately 1,200 Hindus who for the most part work in the lumber industry of British Columbia, may have a decisive effect on the decision of India whether to remain in the British Commonwealth of Nations.

Dr. D. P. Pandia, a traveling representative of the Indian National Congress party, headed by Pandit Nehru and Mahatma Gandhi, gave that opinion in an interview here today.

Dr. Pandia's mission is to keep contact with and help solve the problems of Indian minority groups throughout the world.

He said that one of the strongest arguments used by Indian Nationalists, who wanted India's complete withdrawal from the Commonwealth, was that India nationals are heavily discriminated against in the matter of immigration and citizenship in other nations of the Commonwealth.

"What is the use of India remaining a member of the Commonwealth," asked Dr. Pandia, "if we are not given the privileges of citizenship, if we are put in the same category as Japanese and Chinese people who are not even British subjects."

Immediate action by Canada to give full citizenship to its Hindu (Sikh) minority and to give India at least an immigration quota, as the United States has done, would have a profound effect on Indian public opinion. It would be a powerful argument to the 400,000,000 Indians for remaining within the Commonwealth.

Dr. Pandia said he realized that the problem of Sikhs in British Columbia was mainly provincial, but he expressed the hope that his talks in Ottawa, where he will confer with Trade Minister Mackinnon and other Government officials, would lead to results "beneficial to all concerned."

Report Soviet Demands Bases

ISTANBUL, Aug. 12 (AP).—Informed sources said tonight the Russian note to Turkey on the Dardanelles amounts to a formal demand for bases along the straits and proposes that their administration is a matter for Black Sea powers only.

Some press reports went beyond this and said Russia had asked for at least 1,000 acres of land for bases, with which she would control the straits in common with Turkey.

Turkey is expected to refuse the demands categorically, but probably not until after conferring with Britain and United States.

Storms Rage Over Britain

LONDON, Aug. 12 (Reuters). — Fields throughout Leicestershire, Suffolk and Wiltshire were flooded and crops severely damaged today as gales and rainstorms continued to strike England and the south of Ireland in the worst August on record for many years.

In County Cork, Eire, streets and shops were flooded to a depth of three to four feet with a rainfall of 2½ to three inches, the highest ever recorded.

Shipping in the Straits of Dover has been severely buffeted.

Scientists Film Perseids Meteors

OTTAWA, Aug. 12 (CP).—Dominion Observatory astronomers for the third night trained a battery of cameras on the northern sky tonight to record photographically the Perseids meteors known as the "Tears of St. Lawrence."

Names Brandis Spy Who Got False Visa

MONTREAL, Aug. 13 (Tuesday) (CP).—The Montreal Gazette today named William Brandis, "formerly known as Steinberg in New York City," as the Russian "master spy" for whom Fred Rose, Labor Progressive member of Parliament, "and a present member of the (Federal) Cabinet" allegedly obtained false citizenship and a false passport in 1936.

The Gazette, in a newspage story, said that "in view of the halting statement made by Hon. Louis S. St. Laurent, Minister of Justice, in the House of Commons yesterday concerning the suspicion raised against his Federal Cabinet as Acting Prime Minister, it can now be stated that William Brandis formerly known as Steinberg in New York City, is the Russian 'master spy' for whom Fred Rose, now an M.P., and a present member of the Cabinet acted, to obtain false citizenship and false passport."

The story said that the citizenship and passport issues were raised during the Russian spy probe and "pointed in many directions until they definitely pointed to the Federal Cabinet. Rose is now in jail for infringement of the Official Secrets Act. As a Communist he was jailed previously for seditious utterance for a year's sentence."

The Gazette story recalled that in Monday's issue it asserted that Rose and a present member of the Federal Cabinet had been instrumental in 1936 obtaining for Brandis, "since branded as a master spy in Great Britain, where he attempted to sabotage the Woolwich Arsenal in 1938, in obtaining citizenship papers and a British passport within the elapsed time of one month.

"Speaking to the House of Commons yesterday (Monday), Mr. St. Laurent declared he had been awakened with queries about the situation and that at the opening of the day's session 'He had not been able to trace it.' He went on to say that he sought further 'more precise information.'"

Russia Opposing Eire Application

NEW YORK, Aug. 12 (AP).—Soviet Russia today opposed the admission of Eire and Transjordan into the United Nations after the Security Council's 11-nation membership committee had expressed approval of Afghanistan's application.

Russian Delegate Alexei N. Krasilnikov said flatly he could not support either Eire or Transjordan, but gave no reasons for his opposition. He reserved the right to come back to the two applications later.

In accordance with the procedure agreed upon by the committee, no formal votes on the nine applicants will be taken until all have been considered.

The committee also still has to take a formal vote on Afghanistan.

Allies Asked To Join Talks

TOKIO, Aug. 13 (Tuesday) (AP).—General MacArthur proposed today that the four-power council for Japan invite representatives of each of the 11 Allies who fought the Pacific war and have missions in Japan to participate in council discussions.

British, Russian and Chinese delegates evinced surprise at the proposal, read by the fourth member, American Chairman George C. Atcheson, Jr. They declined to act on the suggestion until they had consulted their Governments.

Atcheson's statement specified that the invited representatives of other Allied powers would "informally and unofficially" sit with the council.

Japanese Whaling May Be Protested

TOKIO, Aug. 13 (Tuesday) (AP).—Russia, several countries of the British Commonwealth, and the United States whaling industry are expected shortly to protest vigorously Gen. MacArthur's temporary extension of Japanese whaling into the Antarctic.

Cruiser Going To Haifa Port

VALETTA Malta, Aug. 12 (Reuters).—The 8,000-ton British cruiser Mauritius has left Malta for Haifa, Palestine, it was learned today. Rear Admiral Harold Kinahan, commanding the 1st British cruiser squadron, transferred his flag from the Mauritius to the Ajax last week.

Plane Crashes; 26 Girls Live

DUBLIN, Aug. 12 (CP).—Fourteen French Girl Guides were rescued from their wrecked plane in the Dublin mountain country tonight and others of the party of 26 girls were being brought out as quickly as possible, it was reported here.

The aircraft, a French-owned converted German Junkers plane flying from France to Dublin, where the French Girl Guides were to be the guests of Irish Guides, crashed in a rainstorm.

No fatalities were reported but several girls were seriously injured. The injured were rushed to hospital here after being taken from the wreckage. Hospital authorities said some girls had fractured legs and all had suffered from exposure

Disease Comes To Quake Area

MATANZAS, Dominican Republic, Aug. 12 (AP).—A sudden outbreak of disease capped the terror of earthquake and tidal wave on this Caribbean island today as upward of 75 persons were stricken with paratyphus malaria or intestinal ailments in a single camp of 500 refugees.

Jarring tremors continue to beat against the island, averaging two or three a day.

Lieut. Octavio Vinas, of the Dominican Army Medical Corps, said all army doctors had been ordered to the northern disaster area in an attempt to stem the rising epidemic in refugee camps.

Vinas said eight cases of paratyphus, 35 cases of malaria and between 30 and 40 cases of what he described as intestinal parasite victims had been detected so far in the camp near the ruins of this north coast village.

Ask Ottawa to Allow Board Free Hand in Wage Increases

Charging "undue influence" is being exerted on both the National and Regional War Labor Boards by the House of Commons Industrial Relations Committee, F. J. Bevis, business agent for several Victoria shipyard unions, has written to Ottawa asking that the National War Labor Board be given a free hand to deal with all applications for wage increases and that a constructive Government policy for the production and distribution of consumer products be formulated.

"Workers ask for wage increases because they find their present wages insufficient to buy the necessities of life," the letter, which was addressed to Hon. J. L. Ilsley, Federal Minister of Finance, stated.

"To attribute the rising cost of goods to increased wages, and to say that higher wages will bring inflation is definitely untrue. Inflation occurs when goods are scarce; we have yet to see evidence of the Government's efforts to deal with this scarcity," the communication continued.

If the Government had exercised the same rigid control over prices as it has over wages, and insisted the Canadian manufacturer produce to capacity to supply the home market, Mr. Bevis maintained, "much of the present trouble would have been avoided."

The letter concluded: "We would therefore ask that the National War Labor Board be given a free hand to deal with all applications for wage increases, and a constructive Government policy be formulated for the production and distribution of consumer goods."

Japan in Path Of Typhoon

TOKIO, Aug. 13 (Tuesday) (AP).—A typhoon "of severe intensity," north of the Marianas Islands and moving in the direction of Iwo Jima and Japan, was reported today by the United States army's weather station. The storm was moving northwesterly at a rate of ten knots.

Increasing Force Of Mounted Police

OTTAWA, Aug. 12 (CP).—Strength of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, now 2,464, will be increased by 690 as proper material becomes available, Justice Minister St. Laurent said tonight in the Commons.

Less than 200 of the new men needed had so far been engaged.

Replying to questions as to whether the increase in the force was aimed to meet counter-espionage needs, Mr. St. Laurent said the whole force was available for any work required of it.

Jews Threatening Resist Blockade Curfew in Haifa

British Close Port—Areas Under Military Hagana Warns—3,000 Refugees in Harbor

JERUSALEM, Aug. 13 (Tuesday) (AP)—British authorities imposed a strict curfew on the Haifa area today and clamped down other military security measures as Jews waited nervously to learn the fate of approximately 3,000 Jewish refugees crowded aboard illegal immigration ships in heavily guarded Haifa harbor.

Imposition of the curfew, effective from 1 a.m. until further notice, was announced by loud speakers in police cars, which sped through Haifa early this morning. The announcements were made in English, Arabic and Hebrew.

The curfew covers an area populated by about 70,000 persons.

In this charged atmosphere, the clandestine radio of the Jewish underground organization Hagana broadcast that "British military action against us is pending," and urged Jews to "stock up on food because long curfews are ahead of us."

The broadcast said Hagana had learned that Britain planned to move against the Jewish resistance movement and "arrest those of our leaders yet free." It said the Jews would resist with all their strength any blockade designed to halt immigration, adding that the refugees in the harbor were accustomed "to worse things than blockades."

"Be ready," Hagana admonished its members.

ALL HARBOR GATES ARE CLOSED

All harbor gates at Haifa port were closed to all but military personnel. Streets near the harbor area were patroled for the first time.

Jerusalem, Haifa, Tel Aviv and other major cities remained quiet at dusk, but there was an excited undercurrent of rumor. One of these rumors, which persisted at high levels, was that most of the 6th Airborne Division would be withdrawn from Palestine within a few hours and would be replaced by advance echelons of the 1st Armored Division, now stationed in Italy.

Jewish officials were forbidden to board the illegal ships Yagur and the Eriac Saim, renamed by the passengers the Henrietta Szold which dropped anchor today. The ships carried 1,250 weary, travel-stained refugees from Europe. The two were the latest arrivals in a reported virtual fleet of illegal vessels plying the Eastern Mediterranean.

A spokesman for the Jewish agency expressed belief that Britain intended to deport uncertified immigrants, possibly all 3,000 of the recent arrivals.

U.S. Plan Reported To Truman

President Receives Palestine Scheme

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12 (AP).—An American compromise plan to end Arab-Jewish strife in Palestine was reported unofficially to have reached President Truman's desk today only a few hours before Britain served notice she will crack down on future illegal entries to the Holy Land.

Dean Acheson, acting secretary of state, hurried to the White House as anxiety mounted here over the potentially explosive mid-Eastern situation.

The plan as now drafted was reported to call for:

1. Creation of a Jewish zone of approximately 1,800 square miles—approximately 300 greater than proposed in the plan originally offered in London and subsequently disapproved by President Truman.

2. A United States contribution of $300,000,000 to raise the economic-social-education standards of the Arabs states. Of this sum, $50,000,000 would be earmarked for the Arabs in Palestine.

3. Wide latitude for the Jews to control immigration within their own zone.

Plans to Form India Regime

NEW DELHI, Aug. 12 (CP).—India's Viceroy, Field Marshal Viscount Wavell, announced tonight that the All-India Congress party had accepted an invitation to form a government to rule the vast country until a constitution is framed.

At the same time, however, it was reported that Moslem preparations for a "direct action day" Friday appear to be well under way. The "direct action day" was called by the All-India Moslem League, chief rival of the predominantly Hindu Congress party, in protest against the British long-term constitutional plan for India and as a move in the Moslem campaign to gain acceptance of Pakistan (a separate Moslem state).

A brief communique from the Viceroy said he had invited the Congress party to "make for immediate formation of an interim government and the president of the Congress has accepted the invitation."

In Bombay Mohammed Ali Jinnah, president of the Moslem League, said in a formal statement that the Congress party working committee meeting in Wardha during the week-end had said nothing concerning the Moslem League's withdrawal of its acceptance of the interim government and other proposals of the British Cabinet mission.

Burglars Take Safe Containing $4,000

MONTREAL, Aug. 12 (CP). —Burglars entering Drake's restaurant on Central St. Catherine Street West Sunday night or early today did not bother to open a safe containing about $4,000, but dropped it out a second-story window and carried it off, police said today. The safe was 36 inches high and 24 inches wide.

Calls Bids For Wharf This Week

Minister Announces Plans Completed

(Special to The Daily Colonist)

OTTAWA, Aug. 12.—Tenders for construction of the fishermen's harborage in Victoria will be called for this week, Public Works Minister Alphonse Fournier told the House of Commons today.

Mr. Fournier was not prepared to say whether tenders for dredging in Victoria Harbor will be called for immediately. He was answering R. W. Mayhew, M.P.

The question was sharply brought into discussion on the floor of Parliament Saturday by Major-General George R. Pearkes, V.C., who urged action be taken at once for improvements to Victoria Harbor. General Pearkes protested against the delay and the minister said he would examine into the whole situation over the week-end.

Howe Sketches Plan To Relieve Shortage

OTTAWA, Aug. 12 (CP).—Reconstruction Minister Howe today announced five measures to help relieve the lack of materials from hobbling a Government program with an objective of 80,000 new homes by March 31, 1948, but warned that "if the present (strike) situation continues, construction of all kinds will virtually come to an end within a month."

Sketching his five-point plan to take effect immediately, the minister said "earnest consideration" was being given to the problem of providing "an effective method of channeling building materials into housing of a desirable type, whether it is being built by Government or private enterprise." This, Mr. Howe warned, would in large measure decide just how successful the 1947 program would be.

His immediate steps, as given in a lengthy statement, were:

1. The Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, Crown-owned company set up to administer the National Housing Act and make loans for home building, is establishing an organization to look after the 1947 plan.

2. Incomplete 1946 construction is being kept continuously under review by the corporation and will receive its assistance to meet material shortages.

3. The corporation will be talking to proper departments of Provincial Governments to secure their co-operation, as well as advice and assistance, in reviewing the needs of municipalities.

4. Within the next three months the Government will confer with some 120 municipalities on ways and means of assisting them in their housing problems.

5. Consideration will be given to the portion of the 1947 program that can be started in the Fall of 1946.

Body of Duce In Monastery

MILAN, Italy, Aug. 12 (AP).—The long-missing body of Benito Mussolini, spirited from its potters' field grave here last April, has been found wedged into a trunk hidden in a monastery at Pavia, Milan police reported.

The police said the body had rested at Santa Angelo Del Minori Monastery until it was removed Sunday morning to the monastery of the order at Chartreux at Pavia.

The bullet-riddled, savagely beaten body of the former Duce remained for a year in Maggiore cemetery—in an unmarked grave—after his execution by Italian Partisans near the Swiss border in April, 1945.

The police communique said two monks had been taken into custody, in addition to three men previously held.

Dominion Day Name Stands

OTTAWA, Aug. 12 (CP).—The July 1 holiday will be known as Dominion Day at least until after another session of Parliament, Acting Prime Minister St. Laurent disclosed tonight in the Commons.

The announcement finally settled for this year the matter of whether the holiday should be known as Canada Day or as the National Holiday of Canada.

Britain Blockades Palestine To Prevent Illegal Traffic

LONDON, Aug. 13 (CP)—Britain's declaration tonight that civil war threatens in the Holy Land and invoked a total blockade against illegal Jewish immigration to Palestine, caused bitter reaction with one Jewish leader declaring the decision would result in "much more suffering—but it won't stop the stream of immigrants."

Palestine itself was an armed camp as the British Government announced that illegal immigrants attempting to enter would be interned at Cyprus or elsewhere until the problem was settled.

All possible steps to halt the flow of immigrants at the source have been taken, the Government said, including "urgent representations" to governments of countries from which thousands of refugees are dispatched by what the statement called "highly organized" Zionist-financed movement. Palestine authorities were instructed that "the reception of illegal immigrants must cease."

Britain "cannot tolerate this attempt by a minority of Zionist extremists to exploit the sufferings of unfortunate peoples in order to create a situation prejudical to a just settlement . . ." and at the same time, the announcement said, she was "deeply sensible of the sufferings undergone by the Jewish community and are anxious to bring them to an end as soon as possible."

The official statement of British policy said the illegal immigration is "threatening both civil war and a breakdown of government in that historical land."

The British Government said no further Jewish immigrants without the proper certification will be admitted to Palestine.

The Government announcement declared the steady stream of immigrants pouring out of Europe in excess of British-approved quotas was a Zionist-financed and "highly-organised movement . . . which has been built up and put into operation by unscrupulous persons in an attempt to force the hand of His Majesty's Government and anticipate their decision on future policy in Palestine.

The announcement said the present situation was unfair to the regular Jewish immigrant certified under the legal 1,500 monthly quota.

The organizers of the illegal immigrant traffic, the statement said, "maintain a closely knit network of agents in the countries of Eastern and Southern Europe, by whom considerable numbers of displaced Jews are moved from points of departure as far distant as Poland down to the Mediterranean seaboard.

"Thence, herded into overcrowded and unseaworthy ships with insufficient food and in conditions of the utmost privation and squalor, they are brought across the Mediterranean, inspired by a conviction carefully instilled into them that this is their only road to safety.

"In all this process the laws and regulations of the countries concerned are ignored. Identity and ration cards, travel documents, etc., are forged on a large scale; food, clothing, medical supplies and transport provided by U.N.R.R.A. and other agencies for the relief of suffering in Europe are diverted to the maintenance of what is openly described as the 'underground railway to Palestine.'

"The reception and guarding of large numbers of illegal immigrants places a severe strain on the administration. Their arrival has greatly increased tension between the Arab and Jewish communities in Palestine. And since there is evidence that the terrorist element among the Jews has been reinforced from the ranks of the illegal immigrants, their promiscuous introduction clearly cannot be tolerated any longer."

Lipstick Message Points the Way

CALGARY, Aug. 12 (CP)—A Calgary girl, who evidently was tired of wailing on a downtown street corner for her boy friend, turned to woodcraft signs and messages to tell the tardy "date" where she had gone.

A lipsticked message written on one of the pillars of the Hudson's Bay Company, at the Eighth Avenue and First Street West corner, stated: "For Barry, gone to the Grand." An arrow pointed in the general direction of the theatre, and additional arrows drawn with bright red lipstick directed the way.

Bananas Big News in England

All that Britons have known of the luscious fruit, the banana, is that they have to ripen in a certain way. They have seen little of them around for purchasing in years. All kinds of fruit, commonplace to Canadians, have been lacking in the British diet, so that when this group, sitting on the steps of St. Paul's Cathedral to enjoy the music of the Royal Marines were spotted by newspapermen, eating bananas, both the fruit and the crowd made headlines in British newspapers. P.S.—They refused to tell where newspapermen could buy some.

Mackenzie King Sees Normandy

CAEN, France, Aug. 12 (CP). — Prime Minister Mackenzie King's pilgrimage to the Canadian battlefields of Normandy during the week-end is to him one of the greatest experiences of his life.

As his two-day trip drew to a close last night he said in an interview: "What a superb tribute the Norman people pay to our soldiers and our country! It has been spontaneous, sincere and full hearted. It has been to me a moving, dramatic trip—one of the greatest experiences of my life. To come to Normandy and hear these people speak so glowingly of our gallant men is more moving than words can say. I wish all Canadians could have been with me on this trip."

Every major battlefield on the Normandy beach-head, from Berneres on the coast to the Trun Gap, was visited by Mr. King in his tour. The visit went on from morning until far into the night but he seemed to come through it more buoyantly than men half his 71 years.

Saanich Line Protested By Ward Six Ratepayers

A protest by directors of Ward 6 Saanich Ratepayers' Association against the new line set by the Department of Municipal Affairs for division of the municipality, and a declaration by Reeve A. G. Lambrick that the council will stand by the line if division comes, highlighted Saanich developments last night.

"We asked them to set the line, and we will abide by the line," Reeve Lambrick said.

The new line, which straightens out kinks in the previous tentative line which the council laid down in May, was proposed by R. R. F. Sewell and H. C. Oldfield at the request of Hon. R. C. MacDonald, Minister of Municipal Affairs.

The line is not for amalgamation purposes, but for proposed division of the big municipality into two separate municipalities.

Saanich Council will discuss the proposal at tonight's meeting. If a full council is present, action may be taken to appoint a committee which would sound out the views of people on both sides of the line, it is believed.

Next step would be a plebiscite to determine whether rural and urban Saanich really want to separate. According to present plans, if ratepayers endorse separation an amalgamation vote would later be taken in the urban municipality.

However, directors of Ward 6 Ratepayers' Association, meeting last night at Keating Temperance Hall, condemned the new line and moved to take action against its implementation.

Said Sydney Pickles, president of the ratepayers' association.

"The proposed new line places Wards, 1, 2 and 7 in the inner, or urban municipality, and Wards 6, 5 and 3 and part of 4 in the rural municipality.

"Saanich ward-by-ward financial report for 1945 clearly shows that Wards 1, 2 and 7, which are to be in the inner municipality, have a combined deficit of $16,144.88.

"The directors are of the opinion that these wards would be placing themselves in an impossible situation if they voted for separation into a new municipality. They would be right out on a limb, and certainly in no position to negotiate with the city of Victoria for amalgamation, except on whatever terms the city may determine.

"Obviously the city, in their own interests, would require a much larger portion of the urban area of Saanich to make its inclusion in the city of Victoria financially worth while.

"Inclusion of the suburban areas of Saanich — Ten Mile Point and Gordon Head — might make the amalgamation proposition more attractive to Victoria.

"It was agreed that the proposed dividing line is decidedly against the interests of Ward 6, as such a division of the present municipality will jeopardize the granting of the Ward 6 secession petition now before the Government."

Coward Farce Well Received

The Victoria Little Theatre and Dramatic School presented Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit" in a special invitation performance last evening for delegates to the 1946 Pacific Drama Conference.

Produced under Mrs. Audrey Johnson's direction, the irresistible farce was well paced from start to finish. The story deals with seances and ectoplasmic manifestations and other improbable figments of Coward's outrageously active imagination. The cast was thoroughly at home in scenes of preposterous comedy and managed to throw epigrams at each other with a careless grace that was most ingratiating.

Elizabeth Smith in the role of the impossible Ovaltine-swigging medium was consistently hilarious and her performance was vibrant and well sustained even when she was required to enact a most unladylike brusqueness.

Martha Ann Gregory and Noel Cusack as the two Mrs. Condemines (no one in the cast seemed quite sure just how the name was pronounced, not that it mattered) gave smooth performances. Miss Gregory's natural-sounding laughter was most refreshing. Scenes between the seen and the unseen wife and the harassed husband, played by Henry Worthington, were beautifully timed and intelligently pointed by quick, meaningful movements.

One of the most pleasing performances was that of Kathleen Baker as the maid Edith. She was a thorough success in an important role. C. W. Devey as Dr. Bradman and Aida Kroeger as his wife completed the cast.

The play will be repeated tonight for the general public.

Byrnes Rocks, Bidault Raps, Molotov Tugs McNeil Solves

PARIS, Aug. 12 (AP).—V. M. Molotov, the Soviet Foreign Minister, is a thumb-twiddling, finger-pulling, mustache-tugger.

State Secretary Byrnes, of the United States, is a finger-purser and knuckle-knocker.

France's Foreign Minister, Georges Bidault, is a ruler-rapper.

Blue and grey, with only a sprinkling of browns, are the predominating colors of the delegates' lounge suits—except for one of the Indian delegates, who wears his native costume with a lacy turban.

There isn't a wing-down, gates-ajar collar in the lot. And the only striped grey trousers around Luxembourg Palace are those the waiters wear in the higher-priced dining-rooms.

Mr. Molotov almost never smiles. Below the level of his desk he first clasps his hands and twiddles his thumbs. Then he grasps each wrist in turn. Then he twiddles his thumbs again.

Occasionally he fiddles with papers on his desk, but definitely is not a doodler.

Mr. Byrnes rocks in his chair—which has no rockers built on it—and frequently purses his fingers. In moments of extreme boredom or impatience he lets his right hand drop and raps the side of the chair with his knuckles.

Britain's A. V. Alexander and Hector McNeil spend their odd moments working the erudite and difficult crossword puzzles of The Times, of London. The other day Mr. Alexander came out of the conference crowing: "I solved all but two words today."

Premier Drew Raps Ottawa On Tax Promise

FORT FRANCES, Ont., Aug. 12 (CP)— Ontario Premier George Drew said in an address today that the Dominion Government was not living up to the promise that it would return corporation and personal incomt tax fields to the provinces after the war.

Mr. Drew, who is on a visit to Northwestern Ontario centres, said the Federal Government took over those two fields of taxation to facilitate the successful prosecution of the war and at that time had emphasized the move was "not an attempt to get the provinces out of these fields permanently."

"I agreed with that principle," he said, adding that press stories stating the Ontario Government had tried to resist proposals of the Dominion Government at the Dominion-Provincial Conference were untrue.

"The fact of the matter is that we want to make sure that other provinces in not so fortunate circumstances as we, have the opportunity of rising to our level . . . for instance, we are carrying out a $39,000,000 education program, and we insist that we have our taxing powers. We recognize the advantage we have over the other provinces and we wish to place that advantage in a combined effort to strengthen the federal system of government."

Civil Servants To Get Leaves

OTTAWA, Aug. 12 (CP). — The Civil Service Commission today announced establishment of a system of 30-day "furlough" leaves for permanent civil servants with 20 years of continuous service.

Several thousand persons will be eligible to apply, but leaves must be taken at the convenience of the department concerned. A commission spokesman said the benefit, which might be called a "second-wind leave," was designed to provide a substantial period of relaxation midway through a public servant's career.

The 30 days must be taken in a continuous period and, where possible, consecutively with regular leave.

Get Fast, Safe Relief from HAY FEVER

Is your Hay Fever so bad you can't sleep for coughing, smothering, sneezing? Here's what Mr. A. Thomas, Rockway Valley, Que., did.

"For five years—from the middle of July until October—I had to sit up nights unable to sleep because of Hay Fever. I coughed, wheezed, sneezed and could hardly breathe. My throat was sore, my nose would run, and my eyes would water. Then my sister-in-law sent me some RAZ-MAH capsules. After taking several, I could lie down in bed. I am gratefully indebted to RAZ-MAH for what they did for me."

Former Light Superintendent Walter McMicking Honored

Walter B. McMicking, city light superintendent who retired some time ago, was guest of honor at a dinner given by the Victoria Electrical Association last Friday evening.

W. Lewis, president of the association, presented him with a trilite lamp and smoker's stand.

Mr. McMicking, in replying, gave a short outline of the formation of Victoria's first electric lighting company in 1885. Founded by his father, the late R. B. McMicking, it was known as Victoria Illuminating Co.

Some years later Mr. R. B. McMicking also formed the first telephone company in Victoria, which later became the B.C. Telephone Co., Ltd.

Prior to becoming city light superintendent, Mr. Walter McMicking was chief wiring inspector.

LARGE DAVIS RAFT

Containing 2,800,000 feet of high-grade spruce and cedar logs, one of the largest Davis rafts ever to come to Victoria arrived at the old C.P.S. mill in the Upper Harbor recently from Cumshewa Inlet, Queen Charlotte Islands. Despite the size of the log tow lumbermen claim there has not been any improvement in procurement of logs for local mills.

Rookie City Firemen Undergo Training for Enlarged Force

THE above pictures, taken during the routine training of 18 rookies in the Victoria fire department, give an idea of what would make the job of fire fighting not too attractive to many citizens. Left, a rookie takes his first try at shinnying down a rope. When he gets more practice, he will be required to carry a passenger to simulate a rescue operation. Right, one of the new men takes a practise leap from the police station to a safety net.

Eighteen Rookie Fire Fighters Get Training Four Days a Week

There's a lot more to fire fighting than riding around in a big red truck and squirting water.

This fact is being brought home to 18 rookies, all war veterans in the pink of physical condition, hired by the Victoria Fire Department August 1 to provide the extra manpower needed when firemen started working a 48-hour week.

Four mornings each week the new men are put through a strenuous two-hour grind by Deputy Chief Phillip N. Guy, veteran of 34 years with the department. There is a continuous program of training and practice at the department, but this course is designed to impart the fundamentals of the job.

Few people realize, according to the deputy chief, that putting out a fire is not simply a matter of pouring on a vast quantity of water. If this were true, more damage would result from the water than from the blaze at the average fire.

First principle of the Victoria department, which has won numerous awards for low fire losses compared with other cities of similar size on the continent, is to reduce damage by pouring the extinguishing agent "in the right place in minimum quantity" and to exercise care in covering valuable goods for water protection.

During the three-month probationary period all the new men must attend drills whether they are scheduled for duty or not. They must learn to scale the automatic ladder which soars up 90 feet from the aerial truck, carrying two and one-half-inch hose weighing 60 to 75 pounds per 50 feet and a lot more when filled with water. They must learn to shinny down a rope carrying a passenger and to leap from heights of 30 feet and over into a safety net.

Aside from the more spectacular and difficult task there is much solid knowledge to be absorbed on the proper methods of extinquishing different types of fires, rescue work, and first aid, which includes reviving with the inhalator persons suffering from smoke suffocation or near drowning, inspection for fire prevention, the mechanics of fire engines and hoses and all the complicated business of friction losses in hose lines.

"Breaking and entering," an offence which would land the average citizen in jail, is a matter for important study by firemen as a means of getting to the source of a fire with the minimum risk and damage.

The job of driving the 9 to 12-ton fire engines in busy traffic is usually left to the veterans of some years' experience.

At the end of the three-month training period, the department decides whether the rookie is likely to make the grade. If he does, the training goes on, for it takes years of work to make a really first-class fireman, according to Deputy Chief Guy.

To Advocate Liquor Reform To Legislature

The average Englishman drinks like a gentleman. He doesn't "down" his drinks in quick succession, but takes them in leisurely fashion while chatting with friends or playing a game of darts in the country "pubs" that are the community clubs of the English working people.

Those are the impressions gained by Attorney-General Gordon S. Wismer during the tour of England from which he returned to Victoria yesterday.

"I never saw any evidence of drunkenness in England at all—or in New York, either, for that matter," Mr. Wismer said.

He remarked that he had been much impressed with the British system, which will be considered when he formulates a policy on liquor reforms for presentation to the Legislature.

The Attorney-General added, however, that he has not yet come to any conclusions as to what lines his recommendations may take.

"I don't want to give the impression that I propose to introduce the English system here. That isn't the case at all," Mr. Wismer added.

C.C.F. Chairman Accuses Press

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C., Aug. 12 (CP).—Prof. Frank Scott, C.C.F. national chairman, in an address here Sunday, accused the press of Canada of "playing down the C.C.F." and added "we have got to build our own press."

He said a newspaper account of an alliance between the Liberal and C.C.F. parties was invented by Ottawa and that "it was probably a Tory story," adding: "C.C.F. Leader Coldwell's denial of the alliance did not get national coverage in the press."

Prof. Scott attacked Government policies and criticized use of injunctions by big business in "a determined plan" to reduce the power of labor.

Scenic Loop Circling Island Is Road Advocated by Victorian

The construction of the "Scenic Loop" road commencing at the northerly end of the road from Victoria to Jordan River and finally joining the Island Highway at Courtenay, thus offering a circular Island trip, is advocated by J. Islay Mutter, a former Mayor of Duncan now residing at 1009 Terrace Avenue, Victoria.

A resident of the West Coast of Vancouver Island for many years, Mr. Mutter's proposed plan would have the road going from Jordan River along the coastline 19 miles to Port Renfrew, along a constructed road at the head of Port Renfrew Harbor, where a hard sandy beach extends for four miles, thence along the San Juan River up Harris Creek using abandoned logging railroad grades. It would then go along a completed-road down the Robertson River to Cowichan Lake, by road or ferry from the village of Lake Cowichan to the head of the lake, which is a distance of about 20 miles.

From there Mr. Mutter proposes that the road to the Alberni Canal, within six miles of Port Alberni, would be along the abandoned Canadian National Railway right-of-way, constructed in 1914. Six miles of new road would connect with Port Alberni, thence a paved road through the cities of Port Alberni and Alberni to Sproat and Great Central Lakes. From there it could go on a partly completed road to Comox Lake, and along Comox Lake to Cumberland, then on a paved road four miles to Courtenay to connect with the Island Highway.

In Mr. Mutter's opinion the completion of the road would be of inestimable value, opening for settlement large tracts of fertile land, and giving access to large and small tracts of the finest timber on the Island.

The route would follow mostly along rivers, lakes and sea and would be a sportsman's paradise, he added. For tourists, a complete tour of the Island, up the East Coast and down the West Coast, would be a big attraction.

He suggests that all cities, rural municipalities, chambers of commerce, farmers associations and other organizations on Vancouver Island endorse and do everything possible to complete the road.

Shoe Stores Ask All-Day Closing

Victoria Retail Shoe Merchants' Association has petitioned the City Council for passage of a by-law to enforce closing of shoe stores all day Wednesday each week, under the provisions of the Shops Regulations and Weekly Half-Holiday Act.

Majority of the dealers have remained closed on Wednesday for the past four years and are believed to be the first shoe merchants in Canada to adopt this policy during the war.

Nineteen dealers, representing 82 per cent of these in the city, have signed the petition asking passage of the by-law, with four registering dissent. Victoria's two large department stores are among those opposing the move.

It is expected the petition will be submitted to the council at the next meeting on Monday.

Immigration

The theory that some 12,000,000 people can continue to occupy the vast expanse of territory which is Canada indefinitely, without opening the doors to immigration upon a suitable and selective basis, does not hold reason. In today's world we can think of no more dangerous position for Canada to take up. The vast opportunities of the land and its great emptiness form a common danger. All of this natural wealth can only invite envy, and envy is the first ingredient in every move towards conquest.

As a British land, Canada remains under a genuine obligation to see to it that her doors will be open at all times to peoples of British stock. She is distinctly the gainer thereby, and not the benefactor. Subtract the English, the Scots, the Irish and the Welsh from our Canadian history, and how much, outside of the one province of Quebec, would be left? Not a great deal. Not nearly so much as some would have us believe. Australia solved that problem a good long time ago, and has not lost by it.

Meanwhile, the years are passing. All of the Empire fighting forces which passed through this land on the way to war or in the course of training have homes to make and careers to build. Is Canada taking the position that a fair proportion of them cannot come here? That seems to devolve from a mute and inglorious immigration policy, which is expounded too often in excuses for action that is not being taken. In short, it is a do-nothing policy, more is the pity.

National interest alone would dictate a far more realistic immigration policy than that. What we could not hold we will not be able to keep in this kind of a world. All history attests that basic law, unwelcome as it may be. Canada should declare herself, so that the world may know. Will our doors be open, or shut?

Terms of Peace

Italy has complained that the terms of peace seem hard, that reparations will be difficult to pay and that 650,000 Italians will be cut off from their country in the proposed rearrangement of national borders. These arguments can be dealt with by the sponsoring powers on their merits, and no doubt will be. Meanwhile, it is a little late in the day for any of the aggressor nations to complain of harshness on the part of victors in the world conflict.

Italy should remember that she made war, not responded to it. The "million bayonets" that were ready to move into Austria to stop Hitler did not move. Stabbing a falling France in the back was hardly playful. Dropping Ethiopians from the air, until their bodies bounced, was not exactly a Christian form of exercise. The fire and shot raids on Malta seemed very much in earnest at the time. Can Italy plead now that all of her actions, of which these were passing expressions, should be forgotten? We think not.

We seem to remember something about Italian flyers who wanted a part in the "destruction of England." It recurs to us, also, that Italian submarines were boasted about as being in the Atlantic and ready to sink United Nations shipping on sight. There was at least one Italian division deployed on the Eastern front, and probably quite a few more. Albania, Yugoslavia and Greece have each occasion to remember Italy in the war. Nor are they likely to forget hurriedly.

What seems to have escaped Italy is that the Axis lost the war, and the triumphant parade across Europe ended in the worst debacle that the modern world has ever seen. Aggressors should pay, according to their means, for the wasted years of so many millions of mankind.

Ripple Rock Again

It is reported that Ripple Rock bobbed up again in the House of Commons last week, only as a point of discussion, of course. Mariners to whom it bobs up constantly as a physical point of danger would doubtless be more interested if such Parliamentary debate could be taken as a prelude to positive action towards the rock's removal. A quarter of a million dollars has been spent by the Dominion Government in attempts to displace this menace to ships plying the waters of Seymour Narrows, yet little if anything has been accomplished. It is difficult to accept the view that nothing more can be done.

The Minister of Works says that practical suggestions for the lowering of Ripple Rock will be welcomed. One would have thought that many submissions on this project are already on file at Ottawa. The rock has not just recently come up in the Narrows; it was there when the first ship threaded its tortuous passage between Vancouver Island and the Mainland, and long before. There is more likely to be agreement with the Minister of Veterans' Affairs when he concedes that attempts to get rid of this marine obstruction to date have been "feeble." His belief that some method could be found to perform the task of removal will find many supporters on this coast.

Practical considerations will scarcely include the use of a "small atomic bomb," as suggested by one member during the debate. The conflicting reports that followed the Bikini tests are hardly a recommendation for the application of atomic energy to Ripple Rock. Control of nuclear power is still apparently in the experimental stage, and this coast can do without a close-hand demonstration, meantime. Even Ripple Rock, obdurate object though it appears to be, should yield to the engineering skills that the war proved to be plentiful in this country. The first consideration is the will to have it removed. Half-hearted attempts are useless.

Strange Analogy

There must be few people who will discern in Mother Goose rhymes and modern gangsters the analogy cited by the prairie regional representative of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation. This radio official defends the broadcast of stories of underworld life on the grounds they are no worse on children's nerves than the tale of the wolf which ate Little Red Riding Hood's grandmother. Leaving aside the criterion that "better" is a more desirable yardstick than "worse," this point of view is somewhat astonishing, and at best a poor defence of C.B.C. programs of this nature.

In the first place, fairy tales cease to be convincing before children are old enough to emulate their example, even were wolves and giants close enough at hand to be utilized as models. Their influence is therefore negligible. By the time young people begin to understand things aright they know Red Riding Hood and Jack the Giant-Killer for what they are—fairy folk. Not so with present-day underworld characters. There is nothing illusory about them, nor about the influence they exert over some of the juvenile population. The latter are then at an age when the activities of over-publicized gangsters make an unfortunate appeal to them, with results that have been too plain everywhere in recent years.

The C.B.C. official is probably correct when he says that red-blooded adventure is not harmful to a child, and it is in fact more or less necessary to satisfy his imagination. This is precisely the point that C.B.C. officials should regard with some sense of responsibility. The emotional needs of children can surely be filled without recourse to programs of underworld activity. The field of red-blooded adventure was wide and ample long before radio scripts were ever written, and it remains a large one. Adventure does not necessarily imply the deification of criminals. It will be surprising if officials of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, which controls such a powerful medium of influence, do not understand this.

Swimming

It is the natural desire of nearly every boy to learn how to swim. His body was made for it, and is as graceful in the water as most of his fellow creatures. In a seaport, especially, a knowledge not only of how to swim, but also of how to help others in difficulties in the water, is almost a necessity. The surprising thing is that, in spite of all the related facilities through schools, and boys' clubs and so forth, many youngsters do not get the chance to learn. One feels that grown-ups could do a good deal more than they do to see that every boy has at least this opportunity. Often it is the problem of instruction, or of membership fees in this or that organization which teaches swimming. Adults can help there, and wherever the chance comes to them, they should. Swimming is one of the healthiest sports in existence, an asset to every boy in his tussle with life.

Seen in Passing

It is regrettably true that more care often goes into the training of a hunting dog than of children in the same home. Yet, the human mind is capable of, as it is responsive to, a little wise guidance in the formative years. Society complains of self-willed men and women, of those without self-control. Yet every man and every woman was once a child, and a child, moreover, ready and willing to learn.

In the highest form of civilization people would enjoy looking at flowers without wanting to pick them, vandalism would be impossible, and the litter which often disgraces a picnic ground would have been disposed of by the people who brought it there. None the less, the individual who makes an unsightly mess of any part of the public domain should be dealt with, and in a manner to remember.

From "Love in the Valley"

Lovely are the curves of the white owl sweeping
Waxy in the dusk-lit by one large star,
Lone on the fir-branch, his rattle-note unvaried
Brooding o'er the gloom, spins the brown eve jar.
Darker grows the valley, more and more forgetting;
So were it with me if forgetting could be willed.
Tell the grassy hollow that holds the babbling well-spring,
Tell it to forget the source that keeps it filled.

E. & N. Jubilee

Frank M. Kelley

Sixty years ago on August 13 Hon. John A. Macdonald officiated at a ceremony which had the unanimous approval of all Victorians, irrespective of political affiliations or persuasions. On that date, Canada's Premier hammered a spike of silver into a "sleeper" carying the completed ribbons of steel joining Esquimalt and Nanaimo. The spot was about one-half mile west of Malahat Station and marked the laying of the last steel rail of the E. & N. Railway line, a work which had started two years previously.

Reasons for Victoria's jubilation on that occasion sprang from hopes which this community had nursed for some years. The E. & N. completion marked, in the common belief, the fulfillment of a pledge the Government of Canada made a decade previously for the rounding out of a federation of provinces and territories "from sea to sea." As the price of British Columbia's joining the proposed federation, a transcontinental railway was to be built and have its terminus on Vancouver Island.

Surveys had been made and grades located with an Island terminus in view when another route was selected. This decision, accroing to old-timers and records, was responsible for some bitter feeling, which came close to wrecking the dreams entertained by some leading Canadians for the welding of the country physically and politically. Victorians had continually agitated for a start of this promised railway and some of our early citizens went so far as to initiate a beginning by staging a ceremony at Esquimalt, during which the first sod for the promised rail line was turned.

APPEALED TO LONDON

Nothing happened. Vancouver Islanders then appealed to London, threatening to withdraw from Confederation. Lord Carnarvon attempted to arbitrate the differences, with the understanding that his decision would be binding on both Federal and provincial authorities. In the meantime Carnarvon ruled Canada should start construction of a railroad on Vancouver Island with the southern terminus at Esquimalt. Victorians naturally interpreted this as a part of a transcontinental system and an earnest the promise would be kept.

Hon. Alexander McKenzie, then Premier of Canada, had a bill for the construction of the Island line introduced at Ottawa, where it passed the Commons with a small majority. It was defeated in the Senate, however. This action on the part of the Upper House started some nasty charges on the Island and when the Earl of Dufferin reach Victoria from San Francisco aboard H.M.C.S. Cornus he learned the temper of Victorians when his carriage approached an arch erected for the purpose, and which bore some pointed, painted banners attesting how Victorians felt over what was freely spoken of as Ottawa treachery.

The action of the Senators precipitated long-drawn out negotiations which prevailed until a compromise was eventually effected. An Act of Settlement was evolved. Under its terms the Dominion was to provide a grant of $750,000 towards the cost of a line of railway from Esquimalt to Nanaimo, while the Province agreed to set aside a land area of 2,000,000 acres. This tract of land was conveyed to the Dominion. Cash and land were then available to anyone interested in building the road.

How strongly this cash and land combination appealed to one man, the late Robert Dunsmuir, is not altogether clear. Some of his intimates have said he didn't want any part of the business, and had only taken it on under pressure. Mr. Dunsmuir did undertake the business after interesting San Franciscans Charles Crocker and Leland Stanford, as well as Colis P. Huntington, of New York. Signing an agreement to carry out the building of the E. & N. Railway on the terms offered, Mr. Dunsmuir lost no time in making a start.

In choosing the late Joseph Hunter as chief engineer to carry out the work, Mr. Dunsmuir appreciated he would have had a difficult time finding a more capable official. Mr. Hunter had wide experience and was familiar with the initial problems of railroading. He had spent a considerable time on Rocky Mountain grades in charge of reconnaissance parties and had located the site of the Seymour Narrows bridge, over which the transcontinental was at one time supposed to reach Vancouver Island; and had already in 1875 located a section of the Island route from Nanaimo to Mill Bay.

He carried out the work to the complete satisfaction of the E. & N. Railway Company and until his retirement was engineer in charge and superintendent of the road he had built.

The first train came into Victoria two years after the silver spike had been driven. The E. & N. was operated by the Dunsmuir interests until 1905, when the road passed to control of the Canadian Pacific. Since then three superintendents have guided its destines—H. E. Beasley, J. M. Cameron and J. A. Kennedy, the present incumbent.

Elephants and Tigers as Scarce as Nylons

By DAN LEHANE

North American Newspaper Alliance

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—All the wild animal roars, grunts and other sounds of the jungle can't equal in volume the moans emanating from local animal dealers over conditions in the bring-'em-back-alive business today. Take it from three of the biggest such dealers in this country, things are tough.

Now that commercial shipping lanes to such faraway places as Africa and India are open again, the rush is on to bring back alive virtually any wild life which walks, crawls, swims or flies, but high prices and food shortages will prevent the wild animal business from returning to normal for at least three years, the dealers say.

Zoo directors, private collectors and circus agents throughout the country literally are banging on the dealers' doors with orders, but the demand far outstrips the supply.

Elephants, tigers, giraffes and birds have taken their place beside nylons and white shirts in scarcity and high prices, compared with pre-war days.

"Prices on wild animals have gone up 300 to 500 per cent," said Henry Trefflich in his shop here. "Before the war, an elephant from India cost $1,200, which covered freight and insurance. Today they're asking $2,200 for elephants in Calcutta, and with the costs of freight, insurance and duty added, the amount comes to $3,500, which ain't peanuts.

"I have orders for 23 elephants at that price, but the rates are too high, and I'll leave 'em in India until better times."

Freight rates are more than twice as high as they were five years ago, and in some instances are higher than the cost of the animals being shipped, Adolf Krone, manager of Louis Ruhe, Inc., complained. Because of the food shortage in foreign countries, Krone said, dealers find it almost impossible to get enough food to last the grain-eating birds and animals during the voyage here. It takes a ship six weeks to reach here from India, and five weeks from Africa.

Trefflich believes that he has part of the answer to the rise in prices. "The reason is that our soldiers who were in foreign countries during the war paid such big prices for animals, birds and snakes which they wanted for pets that the natives now think every American has a money-making machine. Those G.I.'s spent money like mad."

Pythons, which sold for $13 up to 12 feet, now cost $35, Trefflich said, but the natives are reluctant to sell the reptiles alive. "They kill 'em, skin 'em and get $50 for the skin," he snorted.

Trefflich said that a pair of tigers, which sold for $1,200 before the war, now cost $3,500; leopards were $600 a pair, now are $1,800; cranes were $15 apiece, now cost $36, and birds which sold for $1.50 now bring prices as high as $5.

"We lost a great many of our field collectors and agents during the war and now are breaking in new ones and educating the crews of merchant ships as to what we want," he added. He figured that present animal importations are 10 per cent of normal.

Trefflich explained what he termed the "monkey problem."

"Before the war this was a free enterprise, and you could bring into this country as many as 30,000 monkeys a year. Now you need special permits from the home rule Government of India, which limits the number of monkeys that can be taken out of that country to 10,000 a year. The closed season on monkeys there is during June, July and August, but I have permission to take out 300 a month, because the monkeys will be used for medical experiments here," he said.

Trefflich also had a complaint to lodge against the lawmakers. "One law says that any monkey sold to a private individual has to be inoculated against rabies, and they're contemplating doing the same to any other animals or birds brought into the country. If that keeps up, the people will find themselves without pets, because those inoculations take time and cost plenty of money, and it wouldn't pay us to bring the animals in. As far as I know, monkeys and birds never had rabies, and if they did the percentage was very low, because they don't normally come in contact with dogs.

"And take that law barring members of the parrot family from New York and New Jersey and several other states because the birds are supposed to be potential carriers of psittacosis. That's silly. You can go to Massachusetts, for instance, and buy hundreds of 'em."

Trefflich wheezed at this point. "Asthma," he said. "Got it from the monkeys. This is a tough business."

According to a visitor from Ottawa, a successor to Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King may be selected from among Hon. Douglas C. Abbott, Rt. Hon. J. L. Ilsley, Rt. Hon. Louis S. St. Laurent, Hon. Brooke Claxton, Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe, Hon. Stuart S. Carson and Hon. Paul Martin . . . From an economist: "Unless we return closer to economic fundamentals, we are bound to have a great depression. Stress imposed by our heavy taxes is producing too great a strain on the monetary system. We are mortgaging our future by use of deficit financing, and have not yet felt the full impact of Government debts and obligations. An inefficient system of taxation is reducing purchasing power out of all proportion to the amount of taxes realized" . . . From another reader: "Why should we copy foreign 'isms' when Canada and the United States under free enterprise are the envy of the entire world?" Julius A. Krug, United States Secretary of the Interior, recently announced plans for development of Alaska, which has a population of only 75,000 persons. A public works program will include expansion of schools, hospitals and water and sewage systems. A farming administration will also be established to advise on suitable types of agriculture, desired size of farms and marketing conditions . . . At the end of a four-day murder trial in Old Bailey Criminal Court, London, a jury complained to the judge that they had nothing but water to drink with their lunches. The clerk of the court apologized for the break in the age-old custom of supplying juries with wine and beer, and explained it was due to a liquor shortage.

NURSING APTITUDES

Sir,—Having been a patient now and then, and with always the possibility of becoming one again, I claim the privilege of asking for an explanation as to why a certificate for graduation in subjects irrelative to the nursing profession should be an essential to being admitted as a student nurse?

Surely good health, normal intelligence, cleanliness of body and mind, resourcefulness, cheerfulness, understanding and undemonstrative sympathy, it can always be felt, are the pre-training requisites for a hospital nurse?

In choosing a nurse to take care of me I would be more than content with one possessing the aforementioned attributes and who had satisfactorily passed the exacting three years' training given by the hospitals, approved by the Medical Association.

JOINT WATER BOARD

Sir,—It is gratifying to note that less chlorine and ammonia are being put into our water in recent weeks. I hope this fact will be an encouragement to those who cannot drink chlorinated water under any circumstances, that there is still hope for its ultimate discontinuance. It is not the Dominion Government we have to contend with now, but our own City Council, which has a direct mandate from the people against chlorination, and sooner or later the overwhelming verdict of the people must be given effect to. The City Council has intimated its wish for another plebiscite to be taken at the December election, but has not yet agreed on its terms. The reason for this further plebiscite is because some members of the council are of the opinion that citizens may have got so used to chlorination, that they have become indifferent. This is not so. The cumulative effect in small doses is undermining. There are many people who must still travel miles with their bottle to obtain unpoluted water. Still many others drink distilled water, which is a bad practice, and should be discouraged at all cost. What must be a surprising thing to chlorinators is the fact that even our subsidiary water supply at Japan Gulch is showing unmistakable improvement in quality, and in past months has ranked with the undoubted high quality of Hump Back (Sooke) supply.

It is high time we set about the creation of a Greater Victoria water board, which would place our entire water supply in competent hands. Such a board was created long ago in Vancouver, and that city has been able to resist both Federal and Provincial interference. Efficiency of administration will ensure a safe water, and an abundant supply at all times for all purposes in Gerater Victoria.

Gas Strike Ties Up London Cooked Meals at a Premium

LONDON, Aug. 12 (CP). — Trade union and Government officials late tonight reported "considerable progress made" in negotiations to end the walkout of 2,000 maintenance gas workers which disrupted the life of Londoners today.

Labor Ministry officials met with trade unionists in a seven-hour conference at the Ministry—lit by electricity—as harassed housewives and restaurant owners tried to coax a little heat and light from flickering jets. The conference will be resumed at 10 a.m. Tuesday—which means cold breakfasts and cold-water shaves by the light of oil lamps for those residents of the metropolis who rely on gas.

The five-day-old unofficial strike by the workers, who are demaning an increase in wages of 5 pence (10 cents) to 3 shillings (60 cents) an hour, meant that 1,400 miles of gas-lit streets were blacked out for the second night in London and in parts of Essex and Middlesex Counties.

Thousands of gas-fed factories also were faced with a shutdown.

The London Gas, Light & Coke Company—with 5,000,000 customers—said tonight it had virtually no reserve stocks on hand. "We are keeping some gas in the pipes—that is the most anyone can say," one official said.

Scenes reminiscent of blitz days occurred in many districts plunged into wartime blackout by dwindling supplies.

Londoners formed long queues outside barber shops and restaurants for shaves and hot drinks.

The stoppage sliced supplies to what a company spokesman described as the "worst point ever" and forced residents to improvise methods of cooking. Oil stoves and army field kitchens made their appearance in hospitals and eating places, salads were substituted for cooked meals and housewives sought out relatives and friends with electric cookers.

"This is the worst cut London has ever known," said one spokesman. "Any further breakdowns will mean a complete cutting off of supplies."

Budget Taxes Not Deterrent Says Minister

OTTAWA, Aug. 12 (CP).—Acting Finance Minister Abbott said today in the Commons he did not believe the Government's excess profits tax policy would deter any up and coming firm from going ahead and producing all it could and making all the profit it could.

He made the statement in reply to Harry Jackman (P.C., Toronto Rosedale), who argued that the tax policy could very well drive industries to the United States where they could retain a larger portion of profits.

The discussion occurred during passage of five of the six bills that will bring into force the tax changes announced in the budget brought down June 27.

The bills adopted amend the Succession Duty Act, the Excess Profits Tax Act, the Special War Revenue Act, the Excise Act and the Customs Tariff Act.

Mr. Abbott told E. D. Fulton (P.C., Kamloops), that the Government had intended applying its new succession duty rates in only those provinces which agree to enter new taxation agreements. However, it was found that such a policy would have meant that Federal rates would not be uniform throughout the Dominion.

Under the bill the Dominion rates would be doubled, but an estate could claim credit for any succession duty paid to a province, provided the amount did not exceed 50 per cent of the Federal tax.

Gigantic Black Market Ring Involves Father, Four Sons

BERLIN, Aug. 12 (AP).—The United States Army's criminal investigation department said tonight its agents had smashed a potential multi-million-dollar smuggling and black market ring covering three continents and involving five members of a New York City family—two of whom have been arrested in Paris and Berlin.

Ray Carlucci, chief of the C.I.D. office here, who estimated that if the business had gone on a year "the profit would have been $2,000,000," said the persons involved—a father and four sons from New York City—were: David L. Warner and son, Alfred, of New York; Lewis L. Warner, 23, former air corps lieutenant, who was a civilian employee of the American Air Lines in Berlin; Oscar Selig Warner, 29, a former naval lieutenant, who recently started an import-export business in Paris; Robert Warner, an officer on terminal leave from the navy and at present employed by the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration in Shanghai.

He added that thousands of dollars in Allied currency and a quantity of jewelry had been seized at the home of the Paris member of the family. He said a confession had been obtained from one member of the family and that "stacks of letters had been confiscated as evidence of their operations."

(At his home in New York, the 59-year-old father identified himself to reporters as a rug importer. He said he had known nothing about the charges until reporters informed him.

(The elder Warner said the report was "ludicrous" and later retired within his two-room apartment, declining to talk with anyone. A woman who identified herself as a relative said he was in a near state of collapse.

(Warner told reporters he had sent to his sons overseas cigarettes and money and had received small sums of money from them. He said: "It's possible they may have had deals, but I know only about the rug business I run with Charles Ladewig, of Brussels." He said his son, Alfred, 27, was a jewelry buyer for a firm and traveled a sales territory from New York to Paris.)

The C.I.D. statement, issued through the army's Berlin district press relations office, said the Warners had been operating an export and import business several months, with the three sons in Paris, Berlin and Shanghai as outlets.

Cable Embargo Disrupts Overseas News

NEW YORK, Aug. 12 (AP).—The flow of overseas news messages to and from the United States was seriously disrupted today by an American Communications Association (C.I.O.) embargo against eight cable and wireless companies in sympathy with 300 strikers at Press Wireless Inc.

Joseph Kehoe, national director of the 2,500-member union, said the embargo was "extremely effective."

The four major news services, Associated Press, United Press, International News Service and Reuters, said the normal flow of foreign news had been "seriously disrupted" when wireless employees walked out six days ago to protest a proposed wage and staff reduction. Supervisory personnel took over the posts abandoned by radio and teleprinter operators and radio engineers, the company said.

Long distance telephone was not affected. Some services received news via their own short wave radio channels or leased cable facilities.

Government press messages and commercial traffic other than press moved as usual at the eight cable and wireless companies affected. A.C.A. spokesmen stated in advance that only press traffic would be affected.

U.S. Will Import Canadian Apples

OTTAWA, Aug. 12 (CP).—Negotiations have been concluded for the export of 1,000,000 bushels of packed apples and 2,000,000 bushels of processing apples to the United States, the Dominion Agriculture Department announced today. An additional 250,000 bushels of either grade may be shipped at the option of the Canadian industry.

Canada's 1946 crop was estimated at 16,000,000 bushels, equally divided between Eastern and Western Canada. The department expected the domestic market would absorb 7,000,000 bushels as fresh fruit and between 2,500,000 and 3,000,000 for processing with at least 3,000,000 bushels likely to be shipped to the United Kingdom.

British Ships At Churchill

CHURCHILL, Man., Aug. 12 (CP).—Two British freighters, the Hill Crest and the Essex Trader, are scheduled to arrive at this Hudson Bay port, 600 air miles north of Winnipeg, within the next 24 hours to discharge cargoes and load grain and lumber for the United Kingdom.

Their arrival will bring to three the number of ocean-going ships in port. The 9,000-ton Revelstoke Park docked Saturday and received a welcome as the first freighter to arrive since 1939 that even her half-masted flag could not lessen.

The flag was at half mast because of the death a few hours before her arrival of a crew member, Samuel Williams. A native of West Africa, he was buried yesterday.

The Revelstoke Park is loading wheat and about 1,000,000 board feet of Northern Manitoba white spruce for the United Kingdom.

The lumber represents the first, with the exception of some pit props in prewar days, to be exported via Churchill. It was milled at The Pas, Man., and officials said about 40 carloads in all would be moved porth for the three ships.

Urges Amendment Of Shipping Act

OTTAWA, Aug. 12 (CP). — H. G. Archibald (C.C.F., Skeena) urged tonight in the Commons that the Canada Shipping Act be amended and brought into line with the navigation laws of the United States.

Mr. Archibald read from the Canadian and American legislation and compared the provisions, with respect to wages, working hours and conditions of service.

The United States act, he said, provided for an eight-hour day. There was no similar provision in the Canadian act.

Succession Duties . . . and you

Too often there is a forced sale of estate assets to pay succession duties within the legal time limit. Careful planning can often prevent this—and it is part of our business to protect estates against unnecessary shrinkage.

A friendly discussion with us about your estate problems will not obligate you . . . an estimate of succession duties costs you nothing.

Unhappy Marriage

By ANNE HIRST

"Dear Annie Hirst: "I have been married eight months, but I lived with my husband for only three. I am 18, he is 30. He drank heavily and he beat me. The last time he hurt me so much I had to go to the hospital and then I left him. For a while I didn't think I could go on living. Finally I snapped out of it and went to work.

"Then I met a boy I used to know at school. He wrote me all the time he was in the service and said he loved me. But I thought he was like many other lonely boys and didn't take him seriously. When he learned I was married, he dashed off and married another girl. He says he still loves me. We've been going to movies and places, for the past four months. My parents don't approve, but don't say much.

"I think I could love this boy if I dared let myself go. But I'm afraid. I can't risk being hurt again! Besides, he used to drink quite often although he hardly ever does now. Tell me what to do—shall I stop seeing him? "GOLDIE"

Separted from your husband or not, you are still married and you shouldn't be seeing another man—especially a married man. It can make things only more complicated for both of you. What you both need is to get your lives straightened out, and that you each have to do on your own.

Are you planning to get a divorce? If you and your parents agree that there's no use in giving your marriage another trial, it seems best to see a lawyer soon and start the procedure. Then if you want to think of marrying again, you are free to do so. Meanwhile don't see this man or any other regularly. If you want to go out more, go with your girl friends. You have to realize you're not entitled to the life of a single girl now and it can cause only trouble if you pretend otherwise.

Taller Girls For T.C.A.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 12.—Taller members of the female species can take new heart. Trans-Canada Air Lines raised its height qualifications for stewardesses today by one inch. From now on they will accept the girls up to five feet six inches. The minimum remains the same at five feet, and weight limitations are still 125 pounds up. The reason for these changes is the gradual change-over to larger aircraft including the forthcoming four-engine equipment.

Pretty Wedding at Nanaimo Church

St. Peter's Church, Nanaimo, was the scene of a pretty wedding on the evening of August 3, when Loyis Margaret, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. MacDonald, 102 Milton Street, Nanaimo, became the bride of Lieut. Willard Arthur Glassford, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. William Glassford, Beaverton, Ontario. Rev. Monsignor A. V. Baker officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the brunette bride was gowned in white starched lace over taffeta, with tier after tier of ruffles cascading from the fitted bodice to the floor and forming a slight train; the elbow length sleeves were ruffle-edged and white velvet bow outlined the sweetheart neck. Her veil of silk French illusion tulle moulded to the head, was trimmed with fluted frills and velvet bows, and billowed in soft folds to her train. Her only ornament was a tiny gold cross and chain, and she carried a shower bouquet of gardenias, white carnations and swainsona.

Miss Maureen Carrigan as maid of honor, wore a floor-length gown of blue starched lace over taffeta with off-the-shoulder effect edged with small frills. A large lace hat with blue streamers, matching lace mitts and a sheaf bouquet of pink gladioli completed her ensemble.

The two senior bridesmaids, Miss Jean McMinn and Miss Joan Kelly, and Miss Florence MacDonald, sister of the bride as junior bridesmaid, wore identical ruffled frocks of powder blue dotted mousselaine de coie over taffeta, with tiny flower-halo hats trimmed with tulle and blue velvet bows, and elbow-length net mitts. They carried Colonial bouquets of rose sweet peas and pink gladioli.

Lieut. R. C. Weir supported the bridegroom and the ushers were the bride's brothers, Mr. Clayton and Mr. Roderick MacDonald. Mrs. J. Donegan played the wedding music and accompanied Miss Lillian Benny, who sang "Ave Maria" during the signing of the register.

Following the ceremony a large reception was held in the Plaza Hotel. The three-tier cake, topped by a minature bride and groom, graced a side table flanked by tall white tapers and surrounded with pink tulle. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. J. F. Partington.

The bride and groom left by car to spend a few days at Shawnigan Lake, and Victoria, before leaving for Toronto where the groom will complete his course. The bride chose for traveling a soft wool two-piece suit of deep powder blue with navy blue model hat, navy accessories and a corsage bouquet of pink roses. The couple will make their future home at Beaverton, Ontario.

Betty Shrewsbury Weds Edgar Dash

The Metropolitan United Church was the scene of a pretty wedding recently, when Rev. Dr. A. E. Whitehouse solemnized nuptial vows exchanged between Elizabeth Norma "Betty," youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Shrewsbury, 1216 Gladstone Avenue, and Edgar Wilbur Dash, youngest son of Mrs. A. Dash, 871 Seven Oaks Road, and the late Mr. H. Dash.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white satin floor-length gown fashioned with Sweetheart neckline, trimmed with lace, the back fastened to the waist with self-covered buttons. From a heart-shaped halo her embroidered veil fell to the floor to form a slight train. Her bouquet was composed of pink and white carnations, and she wore a double strand of pearls, the gift of the groom, as her only ornament.

Mrs. George Tippett, sister of the groom, as matron of honor, wore a rose taffeta gown with headdress of matching rose veil, held in place by a bandeau of roses and blue flowers; elbow-length net mitts completed her costume. The bride's two sisters, Miss Dorothy and Miss Alison Shrewsbury, were the bridesmaids, dressed alike in blue taffeta with tiny hats to match trimmed with veils and flowers, and blue net gloves. All carried arm bouquets of pink gladioli. Little Diane South, dressed in a gold taffeta gown with matching ribbons in her hair, was a dainty flower girl. She carried a Colonial bouquet of gladioli tips.

Mr. Alex Dash was best man for his brother, and the ushers were Mr. Victor Bradstock and Mr. Alfred Dash.

The reception was held at the Y.W.C.A., where the bridal party stood beneath a pink and white decorated arch to receive the guests. The three-tiered cake centred the table, flanked by pink candles. Mr. Henry Jarvis proposed the toast to the bride.

Leaving on the midnight boat for a honeymoon on the Mainland, the bride donned a brown topcoat over her wedding costume. Mr. and Mrs. Dash will make their home in Saanich on their return.

P.-T. Associations

Over 60 members of the Chemainus P.-T.A. and guests entertained at a farewell party in honor of Mrs. E. Holm, P.-T.A. president, who is moving to Victoria on August 16. Upon arrival Mrs. Holm was presented with a corsage by Mrs. F. Hart. Supper was served from tables decorated with pansies, rosebuds and gladioli.

LONDON (CP).—As a solution to the beer shortage, H. Stephenson, secretary of the Bradford Licence Holders' Association, said recently: "Water the beer still further and bring the price down to eightpence or ninepence a pint. It would sell just as readily."

Women's Club Holds Tea

A drive followed by tea was arranged by the University Women's Club executive for visiting players of the International Drama Festival from the United States. The guests were driven through Beacon Hill Park and along Beach Drive, where the visitors were able to see many beautiful gardens of Victoria.

Miss Ellen Hart, a past president of the University Women's Club, assisted in receiving the guests at 1513 Laurel Lane by Mrs. Nancy Hodges, M.L.A. (who poured tea later); Dr. Henrietta Anderson, chairman for a session of the Drama Conference early last week; Mrs. J. L. W. Price, president, and Mrs. D. L. MacLaurin, past president of the club. Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. H. R. Turner and Mrs. A. J. Tullis served.

Among the guests were the youthful Danish-American members of the Hans Christian Andersen Society of Seattle, who played in "The Princess on the Pea" on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Hans Pedersen, who directed the play, was present at the tea, as well as Dr. Noedlund. Other guests were Miss Margaret Clay, Miss Margot Gordon, Miss Ella Cameron, Miss Olive Heritage, Mrs. H. A. Arnold, Mrs. H. Booth, Mr. Fred Hart and Mr. John Price.

Tag Day at Duncan

DUNCAN, Aug. 12.—Tags sold by Cowichan Chapter, I.O.D.E., during Alexandra Rose Day last Saturday realized the sum of $340. Those in charge of the tag day included Mrs. F. W. Galloway, Mrs. H. P. Swan, Mrs. C. P. Deykin, Mrs. H. L. Whittaker and Mrs. J. O. Hannigan.

Mrs. Tisdall Heads Nursery Association

Mrs. A. G. H. Tisdall was elected president of the Nursery School Association of Victoria at a meeting of the executive committee held on Thursday. Other officers elected were: Mrs. Clare McAllister, vice-president; Mrs. J. J. Meikle, recording secretary; Mrs. B. W. Fairweather, treasurer; Miss V. E. Ashdown, organizing secretary; Mrs. G. Worthington Lake, convener of the membership committee, and Mrs. A. J. Tullis, publicity convener.

Growing interest in nursery schools is clearly indicated by the inquiries with regard to the bursary offered by the association, which have come in from students at the Victoria Summer School, and at the Summer sessions at the University of British Columbia.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

DO YOU FEEL NERVOUS AND ALL ON EDGE?
People suffering from loss of appetite and run-down condition with symptoms of nerve strain, often need a nerve and general tonic. Olivero Lecithin with Vitamin B (1) supplies tonic ingredients. It is especially beneficial for convalescents. By increasing the supply of Vitamin B (1) in the system, appetite is improved and the system thereby built up to normal, if the loss of appetite was due to a deficiency of Vitamin B (1) in the diet. $1.00 at all Cunningham Drug Stores and other drug stores. How to conserve bread!

The Canadian Food Information Committee has asked Canadians to co-operate during the present food emergency to conserve bread so that starving people in other lands may be fed. We offer in the following suggestions ways to save precious bread.

WHEN YOU BUY BREAD—buy just the right quantity that fits your family's needs. Do not plan to have bread left over from one shopping trip to the next. If you must buy bread for several days' use, get the greatest proportion of it wrapped. A wrapped loaf will keep fresh longer and there won't be any tag ends that are too dry to use.

TO KEEP YOUR BREAD FRESH—When using wrapped bread, open at one end of the loaf only, remove the heel, take out only the amount of bread needed, replace the heel and fold over wax paper.

TO FRESHEN DRY BREAD—If your bread becomes slightly dry, sprinkle the wrapper around the bread with water or put the bread in a paper sack and sprinkle. Place in a moderate oven (350° F.) for about ten minutes or until bread is heated through. Serve immediately for homemade bread flavour.

WHEN YOU HAVE LEFT-OVER BREAD—Don't throw it away. Use it in the following way to augment your regular bread supply.

MELBA TOAST—Use left-over sliced bread. Place on a baking sheet in a single layer and dry out in a slow oven (250° F.) about one and one-half hours or until a tempting, tawny brown. Store in an airtight container and use as needed. Use in place of bread for breakfast, lunch, dinner, or as a snack. Note: Slice left-over hard rolls and use in the same way.

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO, Aug. 12 (AP).—Small offerings of cash grain by the country, plus firm prices in the spot market, created buying of corn and oats futures today. Grains ranged to more than 1 cent in both grains, although volume was small as traders watched Washington developments on price controls.

Gains predominated in paper, food, liquor, textile, steel and building stocks.

Anglo - Canadian, Calgary - Edmonton and East Crest were stronger Western oils.

Winnipeg Grain

WINNIPEG, Aug. 12 (CP).—Rye futures prices made a strong display on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today, extending early small gains to more than seven cents at the high points. Fair buying for United States and local accounts helped the market, with advances in United States grain prices contributing to the upturn.

Unnamed countries, other than the United Kingdom, purchased 500,000 bushels of wheat flour, and 1,000,000 bushels of oats were sold to Belgium.

According to Culbertson - - - -

The average player does entirely too much signalling. Moreover, he is entirely too "honest" with his high and low discards. Observe East's all-revealing actions in today's deal.

*Blackwood Convention.

West opened the heart ten. The queen won, and declarer played three rounds of spades, giving the opponents the chance to discard—and perhaps to signal. East was obliging to the point of sheer altruism. On the second trump lead he took the occasion by discarding the club ten, to assure West that he need have no fear concerning the club suit, and on the third spade East completed this bit of partner-soothing by discarding the diamond ten. Obviously, when West got in he could lead either diamonds or clubs with aplomb.

Unfortunately West could not have gained the lead with the proverbial crowbar, but South did gain invaluable information about the winning way to play the hand. Knowing East to be an honest signaller, South was in no doubt concerning the location of the minor-suit kings. So he merely cashed his hearts (to strip that suit), then led the club queen to the ace, eschewing the finesse, and returned dummy's second club.

East, in with the club king he had so prominently advertised, now was helpless. A diamond return was patently bad, so he led another club. That was just as bad, however, because South discarded a diamond while he ruffed in dummy.

If East had done no signalling whatsoever, South almost certainly would have taken both minor-suit finesses and lost the slam.

A's Hard Pressed To Edge All-Stars

Marionetti's Three-Run Homer in Ninth Gives Pros 5-4 Victory—$1,226 to Spokane Fund

Over 1,600 Victoria Baseball fans who turned out at Royal Athletic Park last night to contribute $1,226.05 to the Spokane Benefit Fund almost sat in on the season's biggest upset as an All-Star nine from the Victoria Baseball Association outplayed the Victoria Athletics only to lose the decision, 5-4, in the ninth inning, when Beans Marionetti clouted a three-run homer with two out and the pros on the verge of what would have been a humiliating setback.

Getting brilliant hurling from Bill Prior and Stan Curry and playing excellent defensive baseball, the amateurs surprised the A's with their great performance and had the over-confident pros desperately swinging for the fence in an effort to avoid the loss.

The contest opened in expected fashion with Pete Hughes doubling a pair of runners over in the opening inning to send the A's ahead. Prior allowed another double in the second and retired at the end of three innings in favor of Curry.

Curry was in superb form and struck out five in his three-inning stint, permitting a lone safety in the sixth. All-Stars got back into the game in the fifth when Maurice Duffy lofted one over the fence to score Restell ahead of him and then gave Jimmy Dumeah, who worked the last three frames, a two run lead when Jack Walker lined another circuit blow over the fence with Duffy on the paths.

Dumeah blanked the Athletics in the seventh and eighth but ran into trouble in the ninth. Murphy led off with a single but Cirimele sked out and Walker made a beautiful running catch of Cherry's bid for two outs. Hughes hit to left field and Duffy, playing deep, just failed to get up in time. Marionetti followed with his game-winning blow.

All-Stars pulled off two twin killings and were charged with two errors, both on tough chances. Winners had a tough time, bobbling three times and having a total of 13 strikeouts charged against them. Both clubs made seven hits.

From left to right are: E. L. Skell, Seattle; E. I. Garrett, Seattle; Lieutenant-Governor W. C. Woodward; H. Bloedel, Seattle; J. Hamilton, Vancouver; W. H. Eisenhower Takes Medalist Honors At Senior Tourney

Tacoman Turns In 73 to Lead Qualifiers At Victoria Golf Club—Ralph Whaley Cards 77

E. N. Eisenhower, well-known Tacoma shotmaker, won the medalist honors yesterday in the 24th annual tournament of the Seniors' Northwest Golf Association at the Victoria Golf Club when he turned in a well-played round of 73, four over par.

R. E. Campbell, Seattle entrant, was a close runner-up, just one stroke back. Ralph Whaley, tournament winner in 1944 and 1945, carded a 77 to qualify easily for the grand championship.

Victoria golfers fared badly with only H. F. Hepburn and Frank Thomas finishing among the top 16. The former turned in an 81 while Thomas, Vancouver Island senior champion, squeezed under with an 84.

Eisenhower played a steady brand of golf to take medal honors and but for several missed putts might have had a par round.

He was four over regulation figures on the first nine, going one stroke over on the third, fourth, eighth and ninth. He came back in even figures for the last nine, shooting birdies on the 10th and 12th and going over par on the 14th and 18th.

Favored by nigh perfect weather conditions, the event got off to a good start with 187 golfers from all parts of the Pacific Northwest teeing off in the 18-hole qualifying round. Match play in the various sections will start today and continue through Friday, when finals in each section will be played.

Scores of the low 16 qualifying for the grand championship follow: E. N. Eisenhower, Tacoma, 73; R. E. Campbell, Seattle, 74; H. W. Andrews, Tacoma, 76; D. R. Munro, 81; H. F. Hepburn, Victoria, 81; E. H. Hughes, Portland, 82; A. E. Jukes, Portland, 76; G. E. Sullivan, Portland, 76; Ralph Whaley, Seattle, 77; W. H. Abbott, Bellingham, 79; W. G. Swan, Vancouver, 79; J. H. Hockey Players Not Linked With Spy Cases

OTTAWA, Aug. 12 (CP). — Justice Minister St. Laurent said tonight in the Commons he was happy to be able to announce that investigation into the use of false passports in connection with possible espionage activities had been completed and there was nothing which could be linked to the sporting fraternity.

He was replying to John Diefenbaker (Progressive Conservative, Lake Centre), who asked for comment on a report on an investigation into the use of the passports of professional hockey players.

Oldest Competitor

—Colonist Photo.

E. J. ROBERTS

Hale and hearty at the ripe age of 89, the Spokane veteran is the oldest competitor at the 24th annual tournament of the Seniors' Northwest Golf Association. He is entered in the special 36-hole competition and played his first nine yesterday, coming in with the creditable score of 51.

Ciros Triumph To Boost Play-Off Lead

Coach Jim O'Connor's Ciros went two up in the city senior "A" fastball play-offs on Sunday when they scored a decisive 12-2 victory over Hoyle-Brown on the dusty diamond at Central Park.

Over 1,000 fans turned out to see Joe Bryant hold the wholesalers to a scant five hits, while his teammates laced out eleven safeties from the offerings of Stan Tenning. In addition, Bryant hit a home run in the sixth inning.

Ciros took an early lead by scoring a pair of counters in the first frame as Porky Andrews boomed out a single with Perkins and Holness on the bags. Tenning tied up the ball game in the fourth by singling with two mates aboard.

From then on it was all Ciros, as they added singletons in their half of the fourth and sixth innings, three more in the seventh, and topped their afternoon hitting parade by getting half a dozen runners across the plate in the eighth as Lloyd Jones' men collapsed completely.

Ciros now lead the series, three games to one, and will have a chance to wind up things tomorrow night when the two teams meet at Central Park at 6:30 p.m.

LUXTON WINS

Luxton Royals prolonged the Colwood and District Fastball League's senior "B" play-offs on Sunday by defeating the favored Langford nine, 5-2. Fourth game in the best-of-five series will be played tonight at Craigflower.

Tillicums-Jokers To Play Tonight

Action will continue this evening on the local box lacrosse front when Jokers and Tillicums clash at the Stevenson Park enclosure, starting at 6:30 o'clock.

In their last meeting, the younger Tillicums nosed out Tom Carney's crew by a single goal, and have since defeated the speedy Foul Bay club. The orange-shirted Jokers have dropped to third place in the standings, four points behind Foul Bay and Tillicums, so will be out to tighten up the five-team loop's standings.

Taylor and Entwistle will be the referees tonight.

Cards Only Half a Game Behind Leading Dodgers

The fast-stopping St. Louis Cardinals ran up their fifth straight victory today but failed to gain on the league-leading Brooklyn Dodgers who retained their half-game lead in the National League pennant race by nosing out the New York Giants, 3-2.

Cotton Al Brazle elbowed the Red Birds' No. 5 with a three-hit, 5-0, win over the National League defending champion Chicago Cubs before 28,254 fans at Wrigley Field.

A three-run seventh rally enabled the Dodgers to nip the Giants before 27,190 Ebbets Field spectators. The Dodgers put together four hits, a walk and an error to overcome a 2-0 New York advantage that was gained on homers by Walker Cooper and Jack Graham in the second and fifth innings respectively.

The tail-end Pittsburgh Pirates scored their third and handed the Cincinnati Reds their seventh straight loss.

In the only scheduled day game in the American League, Detroit Tigers scored a 10-inning, 3-2, conquest over Cleveland Indians.

George Kell's fly with the bases loaded drove in the winning run.

Yachtsmen Continue Trophy Races

Sailing in a light southeast breeze, small craft of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club competed in the second of the season's series of races for the club's Discovery Island trophies on Sunday last, the winning boats in the several classes, comprising stars, lightnings and snipes, being Mintaka, Iona and Restless. All classes started at 10:30 and the finishing times were as follows:

Stars—Mintaka, W. T. M. Barrett, 12:21:00; Cygnus, W. Jeune, 12:23:40; Aquila, M. Wride, 12:50:00. Lightnings—Iona, G. MacKinnon, 1:02:23; Ariel, E. Dowell, 1:22:40; 1234, W. Thompson, 1:39:30. Snipes—Restless, D. Warrender, 1:20:15; Redskin, G. Nickells, 1:22:02; Duchess, R. Fraser, 2:02:40; Klatawa, D. Gunderson, 3:05:00.

The course was from Cadboro Bay around Chatham and Discovery Islands, the skippers of the competing craft having the choice of sailing around the islands from either north or south. All boats, with the exception of Klatawa took the latter way.

On Saturday afternoon the squally southwest wind interfered somewhat with the third regatta of the "B" Class series. Two stars started, shortly after which Mintaka experienced trouble and had to abandon the race when some running gear carried away. Exhibiting good sportsmanship, Cygnus' skipper, who could have claimed the race, also quit, preferring to sail it off at a later date. Another boat, Stardust, D. Taylor, also had rudder trouble, and suffered some damage to standing and running gear.

The boats in Saturday's races sailed from the club to beach mark, to Flower Island, to Paterson Point to starting line, once around, and finished in the following order:

Lightnings — Ariel, E. Dowell, 3:52:47; Iona, G. McKinnon, 3:54:18. Snipes — Redskin, G. Nickells, 4:10:50; Restless, D. Warrender, 4:16:50; Klatawa, D. Gunderson, did not finish because of tiller trouble. A. Evans was officer of the day.

Mexicans Hand Blank Cheque To Ted Williams

NEW YORK, Aug. 12 (AP)—Ted Williams said tonight he had received a blank cheque from Jorge Pasquel, president of the Mexican Baseball League, but didn't intend to do anything about it.

"That doesn't mean I'm not interested," said the Boston Red Sox's great slugger. "After all if someone offered you say, $250,000 to play for one year, what would you do? But personally I don't believe Pasquel would offer that kind of money.

"You can say for me, however, that I have no serious thoughts of playing in Mexico."

Four Games Left In Amateur Loop

League play in the McGavin Cup chase will wind up this week-end when the Victoria Baseball Association presents four games. Play-offs are expected to get under way on August 25.

Scotty Robinson's V.M.D. nine will have the busiest time. They play Eagles on Friday evening, Legion on Saturday afternoon and Eagles once again on Sunday afternoon. Legion and Eagles will meet in the other contest — the nightcap of Saturday's doubleheader.

All games are at Royal Athletic Park.

Baseballers Land Nine Salmon At Saanich Inlet

Bob Stumpf, Tony Ferrara and Pete Hughes, three members of the Victoria Athletics, having heard much about the excellent fishing in Saanich Arm, yesterday found out that said reports were far from mere rumors.

Fishing from Creed's Landing, the trio hauled in a total of nine salmon, two of them well over the 20-pound mark and the others ranging from one to 10 pounds.

They were using two lines with a Tillicum plug on one and a No. 6 Wonder spoon on the other and fishing deep.

Minor Baseball

Blue Line advanced to the final play-offs of the Victoria Minor Baseball Association's Midget League last night by defeating Eagles 12-3 at Colville Road. The hummers won the series in two straight games, and now meet the winner of the Ker Electric-Esquimalt Taxi series. These two teams were scheduled to play last night, but the contest was postponed.

Features of the Blue Line's victory was the hurling of Ray Ramsay and a home run in the fourth inning with one aboard by Reg Lott.

Waterfowl Shooting Season Will Not Exceed 2 1-2 Months

OTTAWA, Aug. 12 (CP) — Resources Minister Glen announced Saturday that in no part of Canada will the hunting seasons for waterfowl exceed two and a half months this year.

Mr. Glen said shooting hours would be limited to the period from half an hour before sunrise to half an hour after sunset. Reductions in bag limits for both ducks and geese were decreed.

The hunting seasons for waterfowl will begin at various dates across the country, but nowhere earlier than September 1.

A decrease in waterfowl was attributed partly to drought, but chiefly to an upswing in hunting following the end of the war.

Even closer restrictions were announced in Washington. The United States hunting season will extend for 45 days only, the daily bag limit for ducks is seven, and the daily shooting hours are an hour shorter than in Canada.

Resources Department officials, elaborating on the minister's announcement, said the Canadian limit for the waterfowl season last year was three and a half months.

In Ontario, Quebec and Manitoba, the new shooting hour limits would mean no change, but in the others hunters had been free last year to shoot from an hour before dawn until one hour after sunset.

The daily bag of ducks has been set generally at 12 except on the Prairies, where an extra three mallards may be added.

Seasonal totals vary according to regions.

In general, five is the daily bag limit for geese, with 25 for the season, except in Manitoba and Saskatchewan, where the total may only be 20.

As usual, detailed regulations for each province, for the Yukon and the Northwest Territories will be published in those regions as soon as possible.

"IN the woods about my garden and familiar precincts," wrote Logan Pearsall Smith in "All Trivia," "lurk the fears of life; all threaten me, some I may escape, of others I am the destined and devoted victim. Sooner or later—and yet in any case how soon!—I shall fall as I have seen others fall, touched by an unseen hand. But I do not think of these Terrors often, though I seem to hear them sometimes moving in the thickets. It is the little transitory worries that bite and annoy me, querulous insects, born of the moment, and perishing with the day."

Welcome Sign Brings Crowds To Gay Dublin

By JOE DENNIGAN
Canadian Press Correspondent

DUBLIN, Aug. 12 (CP) — A huge Douglas aircraft is flying overhead. There is the noise of a Vickers' Viking about to land at Collinstown airport.

This is Dublin, a city of airplanes every few minutes, and of contrasting beauty, slums, squalor and all they bring in their train. But, we are getting on. We are almost in the front rank of Continental capitals.

In the British House of Commons the other day, members were grumbling about the time it takes to get a permit to visit Eire. Normally it takes three weeks, but Home Secretary Chuter Ede orpmises that their will be a speed-up.

There is plenty of food, drink and entertainment. Food is almost unlimited, provided you can get a hotel room. Drink? All the brands of Scotch you fancy. Jameson whisky, Powers, Paddy Flaherty, and the finest vintages of Continental wines. You can get them all at half the prices of Britain or Northern Ireland.

Hotels are unable to cope with the demands for rooms. The customers can be seen in all the smart lounge bars, many of them in uniform from the Dominions. Just now, we have a rush of New Zealanders, taking the place of the Australians.

We are a republic. Mr. De Valera said so in no mistakable terms. But, we recognize our brethren from the other states of the Commonwealth.

FOOD IS RICH, SPENDING RECKLESS

Our food is a trifle rich for newcomers from rationed countries. Hotel managers tell me that they have sometimes to call the doctor to attend the overeating guests.

Economists wonder where this orgy of reckless spending is going to lead us. Visitors are spending gaily, and paying us with British pound notes. We have £400,000,000 in the ledgers of the Bank of England, but we cannot buy an extra ounce of tea with it. All this tourist money is just waste paper until Britain recovers herself. Meanwhile, we are doing the best we can. The British have given us enough coal to enable a second train to be run every day, and bus services are to be improved.

Dublin lovers may like to know how the old spots are progressing. Well, the Abbey Players are on holiday. Most of their best actors and actresses have been ensnared by J. Arthur Rank, who is making films in Britain, owns flour mills in Ireland, preaches Methodism on Sundays, and for £1,000,000 has bought 90 per cent of our cinemas and theatres. But, the Abbey opens soon with a revival of "Professor Tim."

The Gate? Edwards and MacLiammoir are taking a peep at Paris. The Gaiety, one of the acquisitions of the Rank Empire, is puting on Sean O'Casey's "Red Roses for Me." "Red Roses" was a terrific success in London, but then, we feel that anything can be a success there so long as playgoers remain permanently nine years old.

Davy Byrnes, immortalized by James Joyce in "Ulysses," is a smart loungebar patronized by the demimonde. It is all Neon lighting and tubular chairs. The Dolphin, despite the demise of the manager, still serves the best steaks after the races.

GRESHAM POPULAR IN AFTERNOON

The socially prominent slip into the Gresham for an afternoon sherry. Wynn's is full of cattle dealers and greyhound fanciers. The head waiter says he has his shirt on "Quare Times" for the Greyhound Derby.

At the Shelbourne, where they preserve the mid-Victorian atmosphere, Sir Somebody is always having tea with Lady Somebody Else, but it is all so correct.

Down in Dawson Street, the Royal Hibernian is doing a roaring trade. Its Buttery is full of customers using last year's R.A.F. slang, and the overworked words: "Definitely," "frightfully," "positively," "actually," and "beastly" jar on the ears.

In the Kildare Street Club, veterans of Poona now read The Irish Press financial notes in preference to those of The London Times. There is more money to be made on the Dublin Stock Exchange nowadays.

Yes, as an English visitor remarked to Lord Glenavy, Governor of the Bank of Ireland, the other day: "I've come over here, bought a castle and all that, to get away from those damned Socialists on the other side. Under Mr. 'De Valley-ra,' 'Airah' is the only country where a gentleman can live like a gentleman now."

That noise is the British Overseas Airways Anson going to Liverpool.

Should She TELL HER AGE?

Neither her employer or friends would guess this woman's real age is 38! Take a good look. Can you see any "telltale signs" to show she isn't 10 years younger?

Her eyes would betray her first. For eyes quickly reveal when you begin to feel middle-aged, always tired—half-sick, half-well. That's why so many who want to keep young in looks take Bile Beans—a leading British remedy for keeping fit and trim.

Purely vegetable Bile Beans gently cleanse an over-loaded system from the effects of eating too much rich, fatty food—and lack of exercise. Ask your druggist for Bile Beans—largest-selling liver pills in Great Britain—and banish that "always-tired" feeling which puts the marks of "middle-age" on you. 61

Disturbances Caused By Too Much or Too Little Food

By Dr. J. B. WARREN

It is known that persons who are either 20 per cent above or 20 per cent below the weight accepted as normal for their age, sex and height are not considered good risks for insurance. The underweight should rest before and after eating, should chew the food well, should eat much milk, cream, butter, potatoes, and bread. They should get outdoors to get a good appetite. The overweight should cut down on these foods and on all liquids.

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

"BLUE RIBBON OF THE TURF"

The allusion here is to the English Derby, a great annual peacetime event in England, ever since it was instituted in 1780 by the Earl of Derby.

The course over which the Derby is run, on the great plain in the neighborhood of London known as Epsom Downs, is a mile and a half in length. The first prize is $25,000. Colts carry 126 pounds, fillies 121. The traditional Derby Day is a Wednesday, when, in England, the banks close, Parliament adjourns, and everyone goes to see the most famous horse race in the world.

The author of the title "Blue Ribbon of the Turf" was the British statesman, Benjamin Disraeli, who became Lord Beaconsfield. In his "Biography of Lord George Bentinck," Disraeli related the circumstances in which he originated the phrase.

In the year 1848, Lord George Bentinck, leader of the British Conservative Party, who had been an ardent horse-racing enthusiast, decided to give up his stables in order to devote himself entirely to his political duties. No sooner had he made the sacrifice than he had cause to regret it. One of the horses he sold, named Surplice, won the Derby, a prize he had coveted all his life—and he was defeated in Parliament.

"It was in vain," wrote Disraeli, "to offer solace." Bentinck's complaint remained the same. "You don't know what the Derby is."

And then Disraeli replied, "Yes, I do. It is the blue ribbon of the turf."

And to the Prime Minister's other accomplishments was added a sporting expression that will live, doubtless, as long as horse racing.

Little Stories for Bedtime

CHATTERER VISITS HIS STOREHOUSE

Chatterer the Red Squirrel is a scamp. It is of no use to try to deny it. He is the kind of a scamp who is happiest when he is in mischief. When he went home after stealing all the nuts and corn in the storehouse of his cousin, Happy Jack the Grey Squirrel, he was as tickled as if he had done a good deal instead of a bad one. As I told you before such a deed does seem as bad to the little people of the Green Meadows and the Green Forest as it does to us. One of the laws of wild life is that each look out for his own safety. Another is that each must take care of his own things. If he isn't smart enough to, and so loses them, no one is to blame but himself.

He stole over to a place where he could watch Happy Jack

You know Chatterer the Red Squirrel has a number of storehouses. That shows how shrewd and clever and smart he is. He knows that if he should put all his supplies in one storehouse and that storehouse should be robbed, he wouldn't have any. But if he puts them in several storehouses the chances are that not more than one will be found. If one is found and robbed, why he had only lost a part of his supplies instead of all.

The morning after he had robbed Happy Jack he did not visit all his storehouses. In fact, he did not visit any of them for some time. Unlike Happy Jack he hunted for his breakfast in the Green Forest. Of course he heard Happy Jack when Happy Jack discovered his loss and began to scold. Chatterer chuckled. As soon as he had found his breakfast and eaten it, he stole over to a place where he could watch Happy Jack and himself remain unseen. There he fairly hugged himself as he listened to all the dreadful things Happy Jack was threatening to do to the one who had stolen his supplies.

After a while he grew tired of listening and decided that he would look at his storehouse just by way of seeing that they were all right. So Chatterer ran from storehouse to storehouse and the last one of all was the biggest and best one, the one in which he had stored the nuts and corn Farmer Brown's boy had given him for Thanksgiving. When he poked his head inside and found it empty Chatterer quite lost his breath. He just couldn't believe it was so. When he got his breath again how his tongue did go! Happy Jack was making some noise, but it was nothing to the noise that Chatterer made, for Chatterer is a notorious scold, as you know.

Sammy Jay, who had been waiting and watching for just this thing to happen, shrieked aloud in glee. You see Sammy knew that Chatterer had stolen Happy Jack's supplies, and that Happy Jack had stolen Chatterer's supplies and it seemed to him the best joke that ever was.

ANSWER TO LAST PUZZLE

Strictly Richter

"Help, police, help, murder in the first degree!"

"I was on edge all the time.. because I forgot one simple fact"

"COLUMN after column of figures... did they get mixed up deliberately to tantalize me? An accountant's office is no place for a person who feels headachey and listless all the time. I know... that's how I used to be.

"Then a friend suggested trying Kellogg's 30-day test. Am I glad I did! That simple change of diet really helped me keep fit. Feel grand during working hours, and after, too. And do Kellogg's ever taste good!"

3 to 1 say Kellogg's are favourite
In a recent survey, 3 times as many housewives voted "Kellogg's" their favourite Bran Flakes as named any other brand. Look for the golden-yellow package—try the large, thrifty size.

Make this 30-DAY TEST

1. If you're really ill see your doctor! But if you just feel dull and headachey, you may only be suffering from incomplete elimination. Especially if you're over 35. Here's how one simple change of diet can help you keep fit:

2. Start right now to eat Kellogg's Bran Flakes every morning. No harsh doses . . . just keep fit the natural way! Get more of the "bulk" your system needs by eating delicious, gently-laxative Kellogg's Bran Flakes With Other Parts Of Wheat.

3. Just thirty days should prove to you how grand it is to feel alert, to have the energy for all the extra things you'd like to do. You'll want to go on keeping fit the Kellogg way!

Keep fit with Kellogg's every day in the year

"THAT'S A LOAD OFF MY MIND!"

Mrs. Mason's husband gets his pay in cash. Since he's working all day, his wife banks it for h m, and she says she's always jittery 'til she gets it safely there. And her brother, who runs a store, says he worries too about the money from the cash register! Safeguarding your money is one of the prime services rendered by your bank.

What a relief it is when you have deposited your money in the bank! No more worry lest it should be lost or stolen! You need only keep a little ready cash in your pocket or in the house. Bills can be paid by cheque and your cancelled cheque is your receipt.

When the teller hands you your pass book, you glance at the balance and know to a cent how much money you have. You are so accustomed to your bank's accuracy that you seldom bother to check the figures.

The very fact that you—and some 5,000,000 others—take all these conveniences as a matter of course is a daily demonstration of your confidence in the dependability and efficiency of your bank.

4 IN MEMORIAM

BALL—In loving memory of Henry B. Ball, August 13, 1941.

Gone from us is a loving face,
And from our home a cheerful place,
A life we love, now memory's dear,
In heaven keep him safe and near.
Though his stay on earth was short,
We will not forget.
Memories of him are fondly treasured,
And he lived and loved and left.

His loving wife and family.

MEDLER—In loving memory of Elizabeth Medler, who passed away August 13, 1941.

A gem so good, unselfish and kind
Few on this earth her equal will find.

Loved and true to the last of her days.

Inserted by her loving daughter, May and family.

Plane Speeds War Bride Across Canada

HALIFAX, Aug. 12 (CP).—A pretty Dutch war bride, unaware until this morning that her husband was dying, was being flown across the Dominion to his bedside in Vancouver tonight as the Canadian Red Cross and the army combined against the elements to speed her passage.

For several days before the liner Queen Mary put into port early today, newspapers had carried the story that former Private Leo Morris was critically ill with tubercular meningitis and that his bride of five months was on her way out to Canada.

But it was not until this morning, when an army officer boarded the liner to greet her, that she learned the man she married in Amsterdam last March 12 was not expected to live.

She read the news in a Halifax newspaper. "Is he very bad?" she asked. An official nodded. "I must hurry to him," she said.

While the 18-year-old brunette was shepherded by Red Cross girls and Captain E. G. Gerridzen, of the army's repatriation directorate, who met her aboard ship, soldiers collected her baggage, immigration officials rushed their procedure and passage was arranged aboard a Trans-Canada Airlines plane leaving this afternoon.

The Red Cross alerted its branches along the route and uniformed workers were ready to care for the girl at Montreal and Winnipeg, where her plane was expected to alight. She was expected to reach her destination about 6 a.m., Vancouver time, tomorrow.

Burglaries Loose Bonds on Market

VANCOUVER, Aug. 12 (CP).—Safe-cracking and burglaries have loosed a flood of stolen Canada Victory bonds on the open market in Vancouver, and banks are cashing bonds offered for sale only when the persons offering can fully identify themselves.

Some bank officials say they will not accept the proof of National Identification cards because there are now so many forgeries and many are possessed by persons who are not rightful owners.

A number of banks ask people to take their bonds to banks where they can be identified or where they have an account.

Matiko is in hospital in New Westminster suffering from head injuries. His condition is said to be "poor."

Prices Rise In Australia

By JACK HOLDSWORTH
Canadian Press Correspondent

SYDNEY, Australia, Aug. 12, (CP).—Most foods are fairly plentiful in Australia, but prices are about 30 per cent higher on the average than they were before the war. Housewives estimate that it costs $12 a week to feed a family of six, including four children, as against $8 in 1939.

Prices of many foods were controlled by the Federal Government during the war, but since then there has been a gradual relaxing of this control. Fruit and vegetable prices are among those being relaxed.

The retail prices of beans, peas, sweet potatoes, pumpkins, lettuce, marrows and rhubarb no longer have Government price ceilings. Greengrocers now fix their own retail prices by adding, under Government supervision, a margin on the cost prices shown on their invoices.

Official New South Wales Government price lists show that peas have risen from 6 cents in 1940 to 18 cents a pound in 1946, beans from 9 to 27 cents a pound, individual cabbages from 9 to 25 cents, and tomatoes from 6 to 20 cents a pound.

CEILING ON FRUITS

Apples, pears, peaches, oranges and potatoes are still sold on fixed Government ceilings. Before the war the four fruits were sold by the dozen but under Government regulations now are sold by the pound.

Apples were 24 cents a dozen in 1940 and now are 20 cents a pound, pears have gone from 18 cents a dozen to 13 cents a pound, peaches from 27 cents a dozen to 18 cents a pound and oranges from 27 cents a dozen to 35 cents a pound.

Potatoes, one of the basic foods, have been much in the news over the last few years with periodic shortages lasting for weeks at a time harassing housewives in many capital cities. The causes have included bad seasons and strikes tying up transport between states.

Meat prices, on an average, have risen about 50 per cent since before the war. They now are Government-controlled, and meat itself is rationed with meat queues still a feature of the local scene. Meat is less plentiful than before the war and some special lines, such as tripe and lamb's fry, are most difficult to obtain.

Egg, bread, milk and butter prices have all risen, eggs appreciably, but milk, butter and bread less noticeably.

Severe Storm At Edmonton

EDMONTON, Aug. 12 (CP). — A severe electrical and rain storm which swept over Edmonton tonight caused heavy damage to property and disrupted electric light and communication service throughout the city for several hours.

Heaviest damage was reported in the west end of the city. Street cars in various parts of the city were stopped because of flooded tracks, broken lines and water soaked motors.

The home of Mrs. A. O. Pahl was struck by lightning which tore out part of the roof. Miss Evril Pahl, 22, only occupant in the house, received slight injury and burns.

Officer Freed Killed Friend

CHICAGO, Aug. 12 (AP).—A Criminal Court jury tonight acquitted Donald Murray, 41, of murder in the slaying of his "best friend," Maj. John Fletcher, 46, Canadian army officer, whom he found with Mr. Murray's wife in a Loop hotel room last May 27.

The verdict was returned after 43 minutes of deliberation.

Murray, a salesman, had testified he shot and killed the Vancouver officer in self-defence.

The prosecution in closing arguments demanded the death penalty for what it termed a "cold-blooded murder," but the defence argued the shooting was a case of "self-defence" and was justified by "the unwritten law."

CAMBRIDGE, England (CP).—The Festival Theatre here has been sold to the trustees of the Arts Theatre and will be used as a school of drama.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

PICTURING FAMILY GROUPS

To obtain appeal and interest in group pictures, pose the subjects carefully but naturally.

MAKING successful group pictures is a challenge to every amateur photographer, just as it has been to every artist. It certainly requires thought and planning to make a portrait of a single individual that really tells a story and "comes to life." Picturing a group of individuals multiplies the problems involved.

Actually, however, you will find it is fairly simple to make a successful group picture if you keep a few basic pointers in mind the next time you try to get a group together. The rewards for success will be great enough so that they will well repay for every bit of time and thought you expend.

The first problems in picturing a group is to get the individuals related in such a way that they have "group unity." It's not enough just to line them up and tell them to watch the birdie. Create some incident which will arouse the interest of all members of the group and insure actual participation. If this incident is amusing enough to make them laugh, so much the better. But have one centre of attention.

This centre of attention can be either outside the group, as in the snapshot above, or it can be within the group itself.

A method of planting the centre of attention within the group itself would be to have the group seated around a table, for example, concentrating on an exciting and amusing game. Or you can have Brother Bill explain how his new fishing tackle works, or sister modeling a new bathing suit.

You will get dozens of ideas for group organizations as you think about it. The important thing, however, is to enlist the participation of every member of the group, without letting the group look stiff or posed.

Often unusual group pictures result from getting above or below the level of the group to make the exposure. Today's illustration is a good example of how an unusual viewpoint can result in a much better picture than if made from the conventional eye-level position.

In group studies, be sure you have epough depth of field to get all the members of the group in focus. Above all, be sure to snap the shutter at the right psychological moment.

These few suggestions are all you need to make consistently interesting group pictures—the kind of snapshots that will mean constant pleasure for those in the service.—John van Guilder.

B.C. Leads Drama Development Speaker Says at Conference

The importance of awakening drama-consciousness among present-day audiences was the theme emphasized by many of the speakers heard in yesterday's sessions of the 1946 Pacific Drama Conference at the Empress Hotel.

The need of a national theatre in Canada to build theatre-mindedness was stressed by Mrs. J. Harry Smith, of the Montreal Little Theatre. Mrs. Smith declared that a national theatre "does not necessarily mean a building, but rather a movement which can grow from the existing little theatre groups."

Mrs. E. Vera Morris, Seattle, national president of the League of Western Writers, criticized the attitude of modern playwrights to their task, and hoped for a more active interest in human problems in their relation to drama.

Arthur G. Penny, former drama critic of The Winnipeg Free Press and The Montreal Gazette and at present editor-in-chief of The Quebec Chronicle-Telegraph, reminded the gathering that most talented Canadians have to go elsewhere for an appreciative development of their theatrical potentialities. Mr. Penny complimented the British Columbia community drama movement, remarking that "the rest of the country is lagging far behind British Columbia in the development of school and community drama."

Highlight of the morning session of the conference was a talk by E. G. Sterndale-Bennett, of Toronto, who adjudicated at last week's International Drama Festival here. Mr. Bennett spoke on "Performance Values."

The afternoon session opened with a demonstration by Ross A. Lort, Vancouver architect and drama enthusiast, of his own fully-equipped scale-built model theatre. Mr. Lort showed the conference delegates the many varied effects which can be worked out with what he termed "unit scenery."

Hon. Herbert Anscomb, Minister of Finance, representing Premier John Hart, opened the conference at 10 a.m. Chairman at the morning session was Dr. Henrietta Anderson, director of the Greater Victoria Recreation Council, and of the afternoon session, E. G. Smith, C.D.A.

Delegates and speakers were guests of the Victoria Little Theatre in the evening for a special performance of Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit."

Other speakers at yesterday's sessions were: Mrs. Lucille LeClercq, Seattle radio writer; Major-General R. O. Alexander; A. P. Brown, Seattle Civic Pageant director; Anthony Walsh, of the British Columbia Department of Indian Affairs; Capt. M. J. Evans, of the Kimberley Little Theatre; Miss Dorothy Davies; Mrs. Clara Richter, New York attorney and dramatist; and Archie McCorkindale, of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.

Local Consumption Order for Lumber To Aid Housing

The construction of large commercial buildings is held partly responsible for the shortage of materials for home building, according to Victoria retail lumbermen.

Retail dealers maintain that lumber construction in one large commercial building may equal that used for 12 or 15 dwellings.

Meanwhile, A. J. Patton, city solicitor, predicted yesterday that the situation with regard to lumber for home building would be improved materially in the near future by the recent order that mills must retain 50 per cent of lumber for local consumption.

Mr. Patton was reporting on briefs submitted by R. Clarke on veterans' housing. He pointed out that the council could enter into contracts under N.H.A. or Wartime Housing to provide housing.

Increased Pensions Urged by Toc H Club

Because of the increased cost of living, the Toc H clubs of the British Columbia area have sent a resolution to the Dominion Government urging that the old-age pensions be increased to $50 monthly.

The clubs point out that the Senate, Federal, provincial and some municipal legislative bodies have all materially increased their own salaries and that most industries are increasing wages.

The memorandum stated that it is considered impossible for an individual to maintain himself, with self-respect, under the provision permitted by the present rate of old-age pensions.

Asks Policy Of Dispersal For Japanese

Confidence that the position taken by the Dominion Government and British Columbia on the question of deportation of Japanese nationals would be sustained by the Privy Council was expressed here yesterday by Attorney-General Gordon S. Wismer, K.C.

Meanwhile, Mr. Wismer declared that it was time for the Government of Canada to implement the policy of dispersal that had been announced by Prime Minister Mackenzie King, so as to avoid local problems and concentration of most of the Japanese population on this Coast.

"The Japanese problem hasn't yet been dealt with in a satisfactory manner," the Attorney-General asserted. Those who had supported the Japanese against deportation in the hearings before the Privy Council would be agreeable to a policy of dispersal, he said.

The Privy Council did not set a date for the handing down of its decision. It must be soon if it is to be of any effect, Mr. Wismer said.

Author "Mortal Storm" Is Holiday Guest Here

MR. AND MRS. A. E. FORBES-DENNIS

"The real antidote to the atomic bomb is a better human being," said Phyllis Bottome, distinguished author, in an interview at the Empress Hotel last night.

Miss Bottome, who is really Mrs. A. E. Forbes-Dennis, has written over 40 books, including several best sellers, since she began to write at 17. Millions of movie-goers know her through such films as "Private Worlds" and "The Mortal Storm," based upon her psychological novels.

She and her husband, a British Foreign Service officer, and a well-known lay psychiatrist, have seen the Nazi terror at first hand. They share, among other common interests, a burning desire to see that it does not happen again.

Adlerian psychology, with its emphasis on man's responsibility toward his fellow man, provides the answer to many of the world's problems, including the problem of building for peace, they both declare.

They lived for nine years in the Austrian Tyrol, and left only three days before Hitler came. Ninety per cent of Austrians hated Hitler and looked in vain to England for support, Miss Bottome said.

"My definition of a Nazi is a person who loves power more than he loves human beings," she declared. "Nazi power was founded on lies, force, fear and hate. If we really want to banish Nazism from the world we must build a new system founded on the opposing principles of courage, truth, freedom and love."

Tyranny might arise again, she warned, perhaps in the country that seemed the freest. Dangerous tendencies were: too great a gap between rich and poor, too great a love of money and political irresponsibility.

Mr. Forbes-Dennis was for some time passport control officer in Vienna and British vice-consul in the Austrian Tyrol. While in Austria he and his wife met the great Vienese psychologist, Alfred Adler. Mr. Forbes-Dennis worked with him, and his wife wrote the psychologist's biography. They both admire him intensely.

Adler, they said, reconciled science, religion and philosophy by formulating "love thy neighbor" as a psychological rule.

"The real antidote to the atomic bomb is a better human being," said Miss Bottome. First step toward building a better world lay in education, within which Adlerian psychology playing its part, she declared.

Mr. and Mrs. Forbes-Dennis founded a child psychiatric clinic in South London before the war. "Hitler and Mussolini were problem children. I wish they'd fallen into our hands, we would have cured them. What a lot of trouble it would have saved," the famous author smiled.

During filming of "The Mortal Storm," first anti-Nazi novel to reach the screen in 1940, Miss Bottome and members of the M.G.M. company were threatened by Nazi agents, Miss Bottome recalled.

That year she canceled a lecture tour and returned to England, where they stayed during the war, Miss Bottome as a Ministry of Information lecturer, her husband in the Home Guard.

They have just come to this continent for the first time in six years, and are taking a rest before going to Hollywood. Seeing the Rockies and the Coast was the realization of a 30-year dream for them, they said.

May Use Polish Immigrants In Vancouver Island Mines

NANAIMO, Aug. 12.—A spokesman for Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir) Ltd., said today he understood an application had been made by the company's Toronto office for Polish immigrants to work in the company's mines.

A. V. Stone, secretary to the firm's general manager, was commenting on a report made at the British Columbia Federation of Labor (C.C.L.) convention here that a Vancouver Island coal mining firm was seeking 300 former members of Gen. Ander's Polish army.

Mr. Stone said the company had been trying to get miners through the union halls for two years without success. He declared:

"It seems that if the Government is briging in Polish immigrants for agriculture it might be possible to get some for mining. We don't know a lot about it, but it looks like that is the only way to get miners."

The federation, adopted a resolution at the Vancouver convention strongly opposing bringing the Polish veterans to Canada.

Nanaimo Dock Project Denied

A report yesterday that the C.P.R. was considering construction of a new $2,000,000 dock at Nanaimo in order to relieve traffic and freight congestion was denied last night by company officials in the Up-Island centre.

The only hint of any work to be done to the docks was the construction of a roof over the ramp leading to the pier, one official said.

The report claimed the new wharf would be much larger, and that a bus terminus, presumably for the Vancouver Island Coach Lines, would be erected on the dock.

The city of Nanaimo has been urging the Federal Government to dredge and improve facilities of the port for some time, according to recent reports.

Island Artists, French Actor Features Due at Little Centre

An exhibition of 60 paintings by John deLisle Parker, Vancouver artist, a performance by the brilliant French actor, Jean Frere, and a non-competitive open exhibition of the works of all Vancouver Island artists are among coming attractions at the Little Centre, 965 Yates Street.

Etchings by the world-renowned artist, Sir Frank Brangwyn, and the colorful fairy-pictures of Harold Gaze have attracted considerable attention this week.

Jean Frere's performance will be given August 20 in aid of the Little Centre's funds. The brilliant actor has won wide acclaim for his Parisian character sketches.

The deLisle Parker exhibition opens August 20 and is scheduled to run until August 31. There are four oils and 56 water colors embracing a wide range of subjects and locales, from Oak Bay to the Forbidden Plateau and from Paris to Manila.

For the non-jury exhibition which runs from September 3 to September 15, entries will be accepted from all Vancouver Island artists. Each artist is to pay an entry fee of one dollar and send in two entries only —paintings in oil or water colors, pastels, or black and white. Deadline for delivery of entries is 5 p.m. on Saturday, August 31.

Island artists are asked to write for information to the secretary at the Little Centre.

Paintings Go To Archives

Early days of New Westminster and the Royal Engineers are recalled by three water-color sketches presented to the Provincial Archives by L. A. Grenge, of Victoria, Willard E. Ireland, provincial archivist, announced yesterday.

The artist, John C. White, was a second corporal with the Columbia Detachment of the Royal Engineers which arrived on board the Thames City in April, 1859, after a six months' voyage from England by way of Cape Horn.

With the disbandment of this force in October, 1863, Mr. White elected to remain in the colony and established himself as a builder and architect. It was he who designed the additions made to the residence of Col. R. C. Moody when it became Government House to accommodate Frederick Seymour, the Mainland colony's first resident governor.

All three paintings are dated and autographed. The earliest, done July 10, 1865, is a sketch of New Westminster from the Fraser River, showing many of the well-known buildings of the ambitious town. The second, dated January 8, 1866, is a close-up sketch of Government House located on the former Royal Engineers' camp site at Sapperton. A Winter scene at Yale, January 30, 1866, is the subject of the third paiting, and gives a very clear idea of the development of the town at that date.

Still Question Braefoot Housing Costs

The Canadian Legion and the Citizens' Rehabilitation Council of Greater Victoria will continue to press for a full-scale inquiry into costs of land and buildings of veterans' small holdings on the Braefoot subdivision, near here, it was learned last night.

A previous request by the two groups for an investigation was turned down by Veterans' Affairs Minister Ian Mackenzie after Gordon Murchison, director of the Veterans' Land Act, in Ottawa, had reported he could not see any justification for a probe of these costs.

When the first of some 50 houses built in this area was allocated for sale about a month ago, the price asked by the Government was $7,636.70. Recently, however, Mr. Murchison announced prices had been reduced to $4,165 to $6,441, "under the authority conferred by the deputy minister and myself." This was done because "actual costs of constructing the houses exceeded a fair average of present-day levels of costs of construction," he stated. It is presumed the difference in price has been absorbed by the Government.

Cost of some of these units is still above what the veteran has been led to expect from reading Government pamphlets on the subject, it has been pointed out. In these it states the maximum amount of Government assistance to purchase land and permanent improvements shall be $4,800. An additional $1,200 is allowed for the purchase of essential equipment and stock, a total of $6,000.

Many local contractors are backing the demand for a full investigation of the costs of these projects.

Several who have made thorough examinations of the houses and grounds stated they could not understand why the prices asked were so high.

In the near future a private construction company will start building 100 houses in the city, some of which will have four bedrooms and none less than two. They have estimated that each unit, complete with full basement and fireplace, will cost $4,500 to build.
